

ment
University
C. 27706 4/20/68

Television and Stage Notables Attend NAACP's Annual Image Award Presentations

CHARMED—The Jackson 5 happily accepts the NAACP's Image Award for being the Best Male Vocal Group of the Year from beautiful Television Actress Gail Fisher of Mannix. This was the second consecutive year that the Jackson 5 has been honored as the nation's top male vocal group by the NAACP.

CHAIRWOMAN—Superstar, Diana Ross, accepts an NAACP Image Award for her television special, "Diana" from Isaac Hayes. "Diana" was voted the Best Television Special of the Year. Miss Ross also was Chairwoman of the illustrious NAACP's 5th Annual Presentations black tie affair held in the International Room of the Beverly Hilton Hotel.

LIFT EVERY VOICE—Marvin Gaye, singer, writer, composer and record producer, clings to one of three Image Awards presented him, while singing the Black National Anthem.

"Lift Every Voice and Sing" with Image Awards Chairman Maggie Hathaway (center) and The Rev. Jesse Jackson (left), National Director of Operation Breadbasket.

Despite Arrests Greenville Blacks March

MRS. ELIZABETH FRASIER

Durham Woman To Preside At N.C. Kindergarten Study Confab

Willie Lovett Picked to Appear in "Outstanding Men of America"

LOVETT
By JAMES VAUGHAN

Willie Lovett, 32 a resident of 1027 Jerome Rd., Emory Woods, has been selected to appear in the latest edition of "Outstanding Young Men of America." He was selected because of outstanding ability, accomplishments, and service to his community, country and profession.

Lovett was nominated for the honor by Tennessee State University, where he graduated with a mechanical engineering degree.

The Durham community has benefited from Lovett's services through his involvements in community organizations such as: The Durham City-County Charter Commission; United Durham Inc., where he is an executive member of the board and second vice-president; Durham County Democratic Executive Committee; Pearisontown precinct, where he is chairman; Political sub-committee, Durham Committee on Black Affairs; and the Durham Council on Human Relations.

Lovett is one of the founders and first president of Emory Woods Community Association Inc., and immediate past president of the Durham Council on Human Relations. In recognition of Lovett's selection A. P. Torrence, President (See LOVETT page 2A)

Elizabeth Frasier, President of the North Carolina Kindergarten Association, which is composed of 1300 members from throughout the state. The Annual Study Conference of the Association is being held December 3-4, 1971 in the Convention Center in Winston-Salem, N. C. The theme for the Association this year is, One Child - "Turned on."

Dr. Evangeline Ward, Professor of Education, Temple University, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania will deliver the keynote address which will focus on the theme.

Mrs. Jeanne Quill, Vice President of Childhood Resources, Inc., Washington, D. C. will deliver the closing address, Saturday, December 4, 1971.

Twenty seven workshops will be conducted by leading (See KINDERGARTEN 2A)

HAYES

Law School Grad Is Named To Board of Trustees of W-SSU

Attorney Roland H. Hayes, a 1971 honor graduate of the Law School, North Carolina Central University was appointed by Governor Robert Scott for an eight year term to the Board of Trustees of Winston-Salem State University. Hayes, a 1952 honor graduate of Winston-Salem State University had worked as an employee (See BOARD page 2A)

The Carolina Times

THE TRUTH UNBRIDED

VOLUME - No. 49 DURHAM, N. C., SATURDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1971

WORDS OF WISDOM
Goals are like stars; they may not be reached, but they can always be a guide.
—K.V.P. Philosopher
True wisdom is to know what is best worth knowing and to do what is best worth doing.
—Humphrey

PRICE: 20 CENTS

Trio Hijack Plane To Cuba

Local Women's Group Cited

WIAPV UP FOR TOP VOLUNTEER NAT'L AWARD

WASHINGTON, D. C. — For its volunteer service to the community of Durham, Women in Action for the Prevention of Violence and Its Causes, Inc. has been named Citizenist in the 1971 National Volunteer competition sponsored by the National Center for Voluntary Action. Women in Action has addressed various social, economic, cultural and environmental needs of the community. They were instrumental in preparing a climate for facilitating public acceptance of a desegregation and busing court order, with the establishment of their "Center for School Support" in July, 1970. Formed in February 1970, the National Center is a private, non-profit organization and the (See WOMEN page 2A)

Group Vows to Continue Protest Until Suspension of State Trooper

By JAMES VAUGHAN
Golden Frinks, state field secretary of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, was among approximately 60 persons arrested in Greenville during a protest march surrounding the death of a black farm worker of the area slain by a white state trooper. The past week's arrests marked the latest events of a four months drama maintained by blacks of Ayden and surrounding areas, which has led to arrest of more than 800 persons, several bombings and a series of marches and protests. Blacks of Pitt County have vowed to continue protests until the suspension of Trooper Billy Day who fatally shot (See PROTEST page 2A)

LOCAL ARTIST EXHIBITS AT STATE MUSEUM

Presently exhibiting with the 34th Annual North Carolina Artists' at the State's Art Museum is local Artist, Mable C. Bullock. A reception-opening held December 1, 1971 from 8 to 10 p.m. launched this outstanding show. The exhibition is opened to the public through the month of December and terminating January 23, 1972. The art work selected was juried by Adelyn Breeskin, Curator of Contemporary Art, National Collection of Fine Arts, Will Barnet, New York Painter and Teacher, Dean Swanson, Curator, Walker Art Center, Minneapolis, Minnesota. Miss Bullock is a graduate of North Carolina Central University and earned her Master of Arts Degree from Syracuse University, Syracuse, N. Y.

One Admits to Slaying of New Mexico Trooper

By JAMES VAUGHAN
The current year has witnessed fewer hijackings than the previous year, however, recently a rarity occurred—three black youths between the ages of 20 and 24 hijacked a TWA jetliner from Albuquerque, N. M. to Havana. The three were identified by FBI agents as Michael Finney of San Francisco, Calif.; Ralph Goodwin, of Berkeley; and Charlie Hill, of California. The three were allegedly charged with the slaying of a New Mexico patrolman Nov. 8 after being stopped near Albuquerque. The incident occurred Saturday at which time the plan and hijackers were reported to have reached Havana. At this time no accounts of the events which led up to the slaying (See TRIO page 2A)

Union Christian Bible Institute Plans Fund Raising for Building

Dr. L. W. Reid, President of Union Christian Bible Institute, announced plans for a building fund raising effort. The school now located at 201 Barnhill Street, has acquired about four acres of land to erect a building to train men and women who lack formal and theological training, to do christian work. The school plans to offer training to un-graded people to receive certificates, diplomas and degrees in Christian Education and Theology. Plans are being submitted to U.D.I. Executive Chairman, Richmond Stewart, to determine the possibility of using the building plant operated by this Organization to construct the building. Mr. Stewart has given estimation of a cost between forty and fifty thousand dollars ($40-50,000,000). The funds may be available from aid to people in the low income bracket. Any person desiring to contribute to this effort might contact Dr. Reid and help lift unfortunate people to be (See INSTITUTE page 2A)

Law School Grad Is Named To Board of Trustees of W-SSU

Attorney Roland H. Hayes, a 1971 honor graduate of the Law School, North Carolina Central University was appointed by Governor Robert Scott for an eight year term to the Board of Trustees of Winston-Salem State University. Hayes, a 1952 honor graduate of Winston-Salem State University had worked as an employee (See BOARD page 2A)

Dr. Samuel D. Cook Named to Head the SPSA

Dr. Samuel Dubois Cook of Duke University has been named president-elect of the Southern Political Science Association. Cook's election came during the regional organization's 43rd annual meeting held recently in Gatlingburg, Tenn. Approximately 600 delegates attended the meeting. He will automatically become president of the association at its 1972 meeting, succeeding Dr. S. Sidney Eulmer, chairman of the political science department at the University of Kentucky. Cook, 43, came to Duke in 1966 as the university's first black faculty member. After a two-year leave as a program officer with the Ford Foundation, he returned to Duke this fall and was promoted to full professor. He did his undergraduate work at Morehouse College, where he roomed with the late Dr. Martin Luther King and was an All-America football (See COOK page 2A)

First Black Youth Registration Seeking 80,000 Black Voters

CO-OPERATIVE REPUBLIC OF GUYANA'S NEW AMBASSADOR TO THE United Nations, with his wife, Dr. Sylvia Talbot, who is a Delegate. Before their appointment, Ambassador Talbot had been Deputy Chairman of Poor Law Commission of Guyana, served actively on many other government committees, and was, at the same time, Pastor of St. Peter's African Methodist Episcopal Church of Georgetown.

The first conference for Black young people on voter registration and citizenship education since the passage of the Twenty-sixth Amendment to the U. S. Constitution will be held on December 11, at the North Carolina Central University in Durham. The conference is being co-sponsored by the Student Government Association of North Carolina Central University and the North Carolina Voter Education Project. One purpose of the conference is to develop methods to register over 80,000 Black youth between 18-20 in North Carolina who became eligible with the lowering of the voting age. A second purpose of the conference is to develop methods for effective political participation by the youth. Addresses will be given by Howard T. Robinson, Director of the recently organized Black Congressional Caucus, and Nelson N. Johnson, National Chairman of the Student Organization for Black Unity (SOBU). (See YOUTH page 10A)

Durham College Granted Junior College Status

The President's Office announced today that Durham College has been accredited by the Accrediting Commission for Business Schools as a Junior College of Business. The commission congratulated the institution for its expansion and developments in the area of business education. As a result of the recent accreditation as a Junior College of Business, Durham College will expand its academic program effective September 1972, to include majors in the following areas leading to a diploma or an Associate in Applied Science Degree: Accounting, Business Management, General Business with options in (Financial Management, Office Management, Personnel Administration, Marketing Management), General Education (Liberal Arts), Computer Science, Environmental Health Science, Secretarial Sciences with options in (Administrative Secretarial, Executive Secretarial). (See DURHAM page 2A)