Wednesday Highlights

7 p.m. — MOVIE — "Arabesque" — Gregory Peck and Sophia Loren star in this 1966 drama about an American college professor in London, who becomes involved in a plot to assassinate the head of an oil-rich Middle Eastern nation. WTVD

8 p.m. — SPECIAL — "Winnie the Pooh and the Blustery Day" — This animated special is narrated by Sebastian Cabot. Winnie the Pooh fights high winds and devises a plan to protect his honey supply. Sterling Holloway is the voice of Pooh in this Disney featurette based on A. A. Milne's classic children's tales. WRDU

8:30 p.m. — HALLMARK HALL OF FAME — "All the Way Home" — This adaptation of Tad Mosell's Broadway play stars Joanne Woodward, Richard Kiley, Pat Hingle and Eileen Heckart. A tale about the joys and tragedies encountered by ordinary people, the drama focuses on a man, his pregnant wife and their six-year-old son. WRDU

8:30 p.m. — MOVIE — "Fever in the Blood" — Three men struggle for a gubernatorial nomination — using both honest and unscrupulous means to attain their ends. Efram Zimbalist Jr. and Angie Dickinson star. WRAL

9 p.m. — MEDICAL CENTER — "The Pawn" — George Maharis plays a charming quack doctor whose unconventional approach to medicine arouses Gannon's anger — especially after one of Gannon's patients goes to the quack for help. The plot takes a neat turn when the doctor, Kenbrook, is shot by the irate husband of a patient. Chad Everett and James Daly also star. WTVD, WFMV

9 p.m. — GREAT AMERICAN DREAM MACHINE — Tonight's satire stars Ell Wallach and Stan Freberg in a spoof of the "great American dream sport" — football. Also, Marshall Efron buys a water bed. WUNC

10 p.m. — MANNIX — "Murder Times Three" — An apparently worried father hires Joe to find his runaway daughter — and then tries to cancel the search. The private detective is further mystified when his other clients ask him to drop their cases, and two motorcycle thugs try to run over him. Mike Connors and Pippa Scott star. WTVD, WFMV

11:30 p.m. — MOVIE — "Terror By Night" — Basil Rathbone as Sherlock Holmes and Nigel Bruce as Dr. Watson star in this 1946 mystery about a huge diamond — and several covetous souls. WRAL
