

PASTOR'S AID CLUB

Yule Season Opens at Union Baptist With A Christmas Party

The Christmas Season at Union Baptist Church opened Saturday Night, December 4th, with its first Christmas Party. "Social Season" is not a cliché borrowed from the bourgeois social set. The entire holiday month of December is the season to be jolly for the entire church family.

For nearly a decade, the Pastor's Aid Society has taken the lead with a combination Christmas Party and a Birthday celebration for the pastor, Dr. Grady D. Davis.

A decor of red and white set the stage for the '71 convivial occasion. Precision set tables were so arranged that they formed the Roman numeral II, decorated with tall, silver candelabras bearing tall, red tapers, a huge, silver tree trimmed with glittering red balls lightened the yuletide atmosphere; white-coated waiters, charming hostesses attired in gowns of gorgeous Christmas colors, and a kitchen staff of efficient workers accelerated this year's event from the arrival of the first guest to the benediction.

Purpose of a Pastor's Aid Society at Union Baptist Church:

To give aid to pastor and family, To remember in a special way the pastor and family at Vacation time, on birthdays, Mother's Day, Father's Day and at Christmas time. Further, to help needy in the community. To remember in a meaningful way the graduates whose parents are members of the Pastor's Aid Society celebrated its 7th Anniversary, 2nd Sunday in November 1971. A special title was conferred upon Mrs. Laura Thompson Davis: "Mother Laura."

To say any one phase of this yuletide festivity outshone the other would be a gross understatement. The music of the charming, lovely singers - The Royalette clad in dinner gowns of royal blue trimmed with silver sequins or the M. T. Gospel Singers wearing shimmering, swirling evening attire in colors of the rainbow; the elegance of Dr. David Bell who asked God's blessings upon the food. The food was cuisine at its best, the service was plush - the white-coated, black bow tie, tray carrying waiters moved swiftfooted from person to person giving polite, courteous service.

The solo from Reverend Leon Sanders "Grace Is Sufficient" - An expression in song of his appreciation for being a guest captivated everyone; and, as usual, Mr. Norfley Whitted of WSRC held his audience spellbound with several dramatic readings: "The Consecration of The Common Way" - Edwin Markham; "The Inn that Missed Its Chance" - Amos R. Wells. Both readings were taken from Maus' volume of Christ and the Fine Arts. Other readings were taken from Paul Lawrence Dunbar: "Christmas On The Plantation and Christmas Is-ah-Coming."

Mr. Whitted graciously presented the pastor, Dr. Grady D. Davis, his Christmas gift from the Pastor's Aid Society - a check in the sum of $225.00. "For a fine pastor - May God in His goodness bless your labor with His help and grace - your life with happiness."

Three of the Davis children gave responses to the presentation (Mrs. Davis, Grady junior and Phycie had to stand-in at home to receive Attorney McKissick and family of Soul-City. Miss Deryl Davis, now a student at UNC-Chapel Hill, Gandhi and Chrystal evidenced their joy and thanks for their handsome Christmas present.

Mrs. Celestia Sanders made one other special gift presentation: a huge, tensiled gift package from: Pastor's Aid Society - To: President, Mrs. Lottie B. Kee.

Passing of gifts brought the curtain down on an evening of merrymaking. All was entertainment at its finest, none outshone the other.

The most typically masculine saying during the evening:

"I have been so busy during the week that I forgot my birthday" Dr. Grady D. Davis.

The most honest saying during the evening: Miss Deryl Davis' guest, Mr. Ron Harrison, a black student from UNC - Chapel Hill - upon being asked if Mr. Harrison were her fiance', the pert, pretty miss replied, "I'm not sure, yet."

Opera Box Guests:

Rev. and Mrs. Napoleon Sanders; Rev. and Mrs. Essex Fields; Dr. David Bell - pastor, Cox Memorial F. W. B. Church; Rev. and Mrs. Leon Sanders - Jesus House of Prayer -; Holiness Church - Dowd Street; Durham; Dr. Grady D. Davis, pastor of Union Baptist Church.

We're spending $89,000,000 to protect the environment.

This is another reason electric rates have to be increased.

We want clean air and water, too. And we're doing something about it. For example, we're installing gigantic electrostatic precipitators at every one of our large coal-burning generating plants. When the job is completed, it will have cost about $50 million—but 99% of the smoke will be gone.

In addition, over $39 million is being invested in water pollution control facilities to maintain the high quality of water in our lakes. Our staff scientists—chemists, biologists, physicists and others—are working on various environmental research projects to develop new ways to make this a better place to live.

The high cost of this vital program is another reason electric rates must be increased. If you have any questions about this, write to me at P.O. Box 2178, Charlotte, N.C. 28201. I'll be pleased to answer them.
