The Black Child Development Institute Opens Atlanta Office

Washington, D.C.—Douglas Moore, Director of the Black Child Development Institute, announced the opening of the institute’s new regional office in Atlanta. The office will serve as a national hub for research, policy, and program development focused on improving the lives of children of color.

Dr. Mattiwida Dobbs To Speak At Spellman

Dr. Mattiwida Dobbs, University of Minnesota, presented a lecture at Spellman College. Dobbs discussed the importance of diversity in higher education and the need for institutions to actively work towards creating inclusive environments for all students.

NCU President Announces Promotions

Dr. Debra R. Watson announced promotions for several administrators at North Carolina College. These promotions reflect the college’s commitment to fostering a culture of excellence and professional development among its faculty and staff.

African Student In Triad Area Pay Tribute To Late Kwame Nkrumah

African students in the Triad area paid tribute to the late Kwame Nkrumah, Ghana’s first president. The event was organized to honor his legacy and inspire students to continue his legacy of social justice and national independence.

The Black Music Center To Sponsor Gospel Seminar

Established in 1970 under a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities, the center has continued to fund the project annually. The seminars will focus on the history and impact of spiritual and gospel music.

St. Augustine Class of 1972 Makes Pledge

The class of 1972 from St. Augustine’s College, with 205 graduates, has pledged to give to the Mona Missie $30,000 (paid over a period of five years). According to Dr. Paul R. Holcomb, president of the college, this pledge reflects the importance of giving back to one’s alma mater.

Largest Graduating Class In History Of Tuskegee May 14

Tuskegee Institute, Ala.—The largest graduating class in the school’s history, consisting of more than 500 students, will be graduated on May 14. The graduating class is expected to include students from various disciplines, including engineering, agriculture, and education.

The Class of 1966

The Class of 1966 included more than 1,000 students, making it the largest graduating class in the history of Tuskegee Institute. The class included students from a variety of backgrounds, including science, engineering, and business.

Dr. Sullivan Says New Technology May Be Used To Solve Problems Of Ghetto

In a recent interview, Dr. Samuel Sullivan, director of the Black Child Development Institute, discussed the potential use of new technologies to address the challenges facing the ghetto. However, he emphasized the importance of ensuring that these technologies are used in a way that promotes equity and social justice.

$50,000 Grant Will Train Teachers Of The Retarded

Two special education programs at North Carolina Central University, in the areas of minimal retardation and the emotionally disturbed and other mild retardation, will receive a $50,000 grant to provide comprehensive training for their teachers.

The Black Child Development Institute Opens Atlanta Office

Washington, D.C.—Douglas Moore, Director of the Black Child Development Institute, announced the opening of the institute’s new regional office in Atlanta. The office will serve as a national hub for research, policy, and program development focused on improving the lives of children of color.

The Black Music Center To Sponsor Gospel Seminar

Established in 1970 under a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities, the center has continued to fund the project annually. The seminars will focus on the history and impact of spiritual and gospel music.

St. Augustine Class of 1972 Makes Pledge

The class of 1972 from St. Augustine’s College, with 205 graduates, has pledged to give to the Mona Missie $30,000 (paid over a period of five years). According to Dr. Paul R. Holcomb, president of the college, this pledge reflects the importance of giving back to one’s alma mater.

Largest Graduating Class In History Of Tuskegee May 14

Tuskegee Institute, Ala.—The largest graduating class in the school’s history, consisting of more than 500 students, will be graduated on May 14. The graduating class is expected to include students from various disciplines, including engineering, agriculture, and education.

The Class of 1966

The Class of 1966 included more than 1,000 students, making it the largest graduating class in the history of Tuskegee Institute. The class included students from a variety of backgrounds, including science, engineering, and business.