

Feminine Scene

Miss Easterling, Paul Jervay Married In June Ceremony

Miss Paulette Easterling became the bride of Paul Reginald Jervay Jr., in a ceremony performed by the Rev. Paul Gilvary, S. J., at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, June 10, 1972 at Holy Cross Church. Mrs. Ernest Price was organist and Miss Julia Spearman was soloist.

The bride is the daughter and stepdaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Leonidas Robinson of 1809 Pritchard Place. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reginald Jervay of Raleigh.

Given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride wore a gown of a sata peau with bodice of Venise lace. Her veil was attached to a Camelot headpiece of matching lace and seed pearls. She carried yellow sweetheart roses, white carnations and fuji chrys-anthemums.

Honor attendants were Miss Brendalyn A. Patterson, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Albert T. Eubanks, sister of the bride. Attendees were Miss Barbara A. Patterson and Miss Hazel L. Easterling, cousins of the bride, Miss Yvette T. Robinson, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Henry G. Monroe, sister of the bridegroom. They wore nylon sheer gowns trimmed with Venise lace.

Jerome Crawford was best man. Ushers were Calvin D. Dalrymple Jr., Gifred Sowell, James E. Hall and Richard L. Robinson, Jr., brother of the bride.

Children in the wedding were Charlene Hughes and James T. Council.

A reception was held at Craftsman's Lounge.

The bride and bridegroom are graduates of North Carolina Central University. They will live in Raleigh, where the bridegroom is circulation manager of Carolinian Newspaper.

Durham Social Notes Of Interest

MRS. SYMNER DAYE Telephone 477-9370

On May 21 at 3:00 o'clock p.m., the women of Hunter's Chapel A.M.E. Church of Mebane observed their fifteenth Women's Day Program. The guest speaker was Mrs. Hazel Bridge of Durham who delivered an inspiring Woman's Day address. Mrs. Bridges used as her topic "A Vision in the Glory of God" which was enjoyed by all. The Junior Ladies presented $100 with Mrs. Cora Jones presiding. A total of $1,194.84 was raised at the very successful evening. Rev. Clyde Long is the pastor.

Miss Brenda Magniss and son, J.J., of Connecticut were house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Shaw of Carroll Street. Their vacation was spent in Disney World Florida.

Mrs. Clyde Harris was entertained at a birthday party at her home in Hillsborough, on Route 1, Saturday, May 20. Mrs. Harris received many gifts and nearly 50 guests enjoyed a delicious repass.

Vacation Bible School of First Calvary Baptist Church, Morehead Avenue, will begin Saturday, June 17, from 12 o'clock until 4 p.m. The Rev. A. L. Thompson asks that all attend and register their children.

Men Day observances will be conducted at Red Mountain Baptist Church, Rougemont, N.C., Sunday, June 18, 1972 at 11 a.m. The guest speaker will be Rev. Samuel W. Evans. Invitations are extended to all by Rev. Neale Harvey, pastor.

The Mill Grove Community Betterment League, Inc., monthly meeting Monday night was called to order by the president Mrs. Rosemarie Lipscomb. Mrs. Symner Daye, assistant secretary followed with a song, "Blessed Assurance." Later, a prayer was given by Mr. Hubert Dunnegan. Many guests were present for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hayes of Lawson Street received Sgt. and Mrs. Olen Jasper Hayes and family of Fayetteville.

Attending summer school are Miss Edith Lewis, Mrs. Mary Irving, Miss Brenda Turrentine, James Turrentine, Mrs. Emma R. Bridges.

The Brown and Neal Family reunion will be held Sunday June 18, 1972 at 1 p.m.

Heartfelt and sincere sympathies are extended to the late Willie Pullian's family, Mrs. Hallie Bass' family, Mr. and Mrs. George Glenn's family, to the late Rev. Floyd Holman's family, the Parker's families and to the late Mrs. O.L. Cozart's family. "The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee and give thee peace—1 6:26.

Mrs. Daisy Daye of Rougemont has the honor of attending the christening of her granddaughter, Flecher Adel Organ recently at Siloam Baptist Church in Washington, D.C. Flecher Adel is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Organ. The couple have one older daughter, Denise Organ. Other grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Russel Organ of New York.

A party was given by the grandparents after the christening at the home of Mrs. Gollie Brown. Also in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Willie Bass, Mrs. Inez Harris Issam and family. The Rev. Ward conducted the ceremony. Many gifts for Flecher Adel were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Bass have returned home after visiting their son and his wife in Charlotte. A grandson returned home with them.

Samuel Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Ward of Orange, New Jersey graduated from Essex County College. He is studying to join the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

SICK AND SHUT-IN

Mrs. Maudy Bass, Mrs. Lola G. Bullock, Mrs. Mollie R. Mason, Mr. Stroud (Doc) Kenion, Mrs. Vera Brown, Mrs. Mattie Lyde, Mrs. Beatrice Laster, Mrs. Amelia Hester, Mrs. Emma Farrow, Mr. Oscar Tapp, Mr. Jasper Haskin, Mr. Ben Mormon, Mr. C. H. McLaughlin, Mr. Grover Shaw, Mr. James Patterson, Mr. William Thompson, Mr. Bert St. John, Mrs. Dorcus C. Reid, Mrs. James Long, Mr. Nathaniel Harris, Mrs. Mearl P. Harris, Mrs. Annie Peaks, Mrs. Mary Glenn, Mrs. Lona Parker, Mrs. Nannie Harris, Mr. Meardie Mangum, Mrs. Bell Thomas, Mr. Sidney Calton, Mrs. Al L. Filmore, Mrs. Sofa Bumpass, Mrs. Ida Holman, Mr. William (Bill) Carrington, Mr. Joseph Wade, Mrs. Estelle Bullock, Mr. Nathaniel Long, Mrs. Blue Bell Peaks, Mrs. Delillah Holloway, Mr. Ellis D. Jones, Sr., Mrs. Nathaniel Brewington, Mr. L. F. Warren, Mrs. Annie Faucette, Mr. Harvey Tilley, Mr. J. T. Tabon, Mrs. Gayle Hedspebeth, Mrs. Annie (Dep) Mack, Mr. Grover Shaw, Sr., Mrs. Lucendia Evans, Mrs. Geneva Evans, Mr. Alonza Eubank, Mr. Otis Jones, Mrs. Wilhemenia Crossat, Mrs. Mary Baldwin Byneum, Mrs. Bell Thompson.

The Lord is the strength of my life, Psalm 27:1.

Martin wrote most of the stories for a special Human Relations Week series in the Durham Morning Herald last spring. He was cited for outstanding reporting on human relations issues.

(THE PITTSBURGH CHAPTER of the National Association of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc.) recently named Dr. Selma Burke of the Selma Burke Art Center, and Mrs. Gladys B. McNairy, President of the Pittsburgh Board of Education as "Outstanding Women of the Year." The ceremony, which also honored local politicians, was held during the Club's annual "Spotlight on Black Business Week." Among companies supporting the Business and Professional Women's Club, was Gulf Oil Corporation, which gave a cash grant that was used to defray costs of busing children to various Black businesses in the Pittsburgh area. Shown left to right, are Dr. Selma Burke, Mrs. Gladys B. McNairy, Mrs. Katie Johnson, President of the Pittsburgh Chapter, Business and Professional Women's Clubs, and Brenda Joyce, Community Relations Specialist, Gulf Oil Corporation.

Rambling With Mrs. Virginia Alston

"IN YOUTH WE LEARN; IN AGE WE UNDERSTAND" ESCHENBACH

Miss Annie Dunigan of 619 Massey Avenue was Women's Day speaker at the Shiloh Baptist Church in Wilmington. Rev. J. W. Barnes, pastor. Accompanying Miss Dunigan on her trip were her sister Mrs. Mavis Brewington and her niece, Mrs. Edna Thompson.

ATTEND GRADUATION Mesdames Julia Freeman, Ernestine Young and Ruth Taylor of Washington spent a few days in the city. While here they attended the graduation exercises of Durham High School where their niece Phyllystine Elise Greene graduated.

ATTEND CONVENTION

Mrs. Lyda F. Wray of 121 Masondale Avenue attended the Boys Club of America Convention in Washington, the fourth through the seventh of June at the Washington Hilton Hotel. Representatives from all over the country attended. Two special highlights were the performance by the Lorton Reformatory of Virginia, inmates who dramatized "Inner Voices," and the Lincoln Boys Choir of Lincoln, Nebraska. Mrs. Wray is a Board member of the John Avery Boys Club.

LOS ANGELES TRIP

Watch for further information on chartered bus to Los Angeles.

CHI ETA PHI SORORITY ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

At the last official meeting for 1971-1972 Chi Eta Phi Sorority, a professional nurses sorority, elected the following officers for 1972-74: President Janet Beasley; Vice President, Joan Martin; Recording Secretary, Ruby Borden; Corresponding Secretary, Pearl Jyles; Treasurer, Lyda Betts; Parliamentarian, Sylvia Richardson; Sgt. at Arms, Lelia Miller; Chaplain, Evelyn Dudley; Philaeter, Lula Harris; Dean of Pledges, Evelyn Wicker; and Historian, Debbie Jyles.

Officers of Pi Chapter were installed by Soror Helen S. Miller, National President. The meeting was hosted by Soror Richardson at 2901 Apex Road.

Final plans were made for representation of Pi Chapter at the forthcoming national meeting to convene in Los Angeles, California and the following sorors are to serve as delegates: Sorors Betts, Coleman, Beasley, Harris, and Richardson.

Pi Chapter continues to give service to the community in keeping with the national motto "Service to Humanity." Sorors Randolph and Dudley assist at the Red Cross each week, Sorors Beasley and Coleman assisted in the Sickle Cell Clinic recently held at Durham College. Sorors Borden, Betts, Richardson and H. Miller presented a panel for the NAACP program at their regular meeting in May entitled "Minority Involvement in Health Fields."

Friendly Club

The Friendly Ladies Club held its regular monthly meeting Sunday, June 4 at 4 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Beatrice Dunlap, 814 Corona Street. The meeting opened with a song led by Mrs. Hastie Price. Prayer by Agnes Hinton. Mrs. Price presided over the meeting. Reports from the various committees were made. The meeting was brief but very impressive. Members present were as follows: Hastie Price, Eva Lyons, Leora Holson, Mattie Tilman, Lina M. Sanders, Evangeline Page, Agnes Hinton, Mary Hayes, Myrtle Taylor, Lennie Rose, Emily Owens, Beatrice Dunlap, Geraldine Pemmington, Carrie Sanders, and Ella Crawford. After the meeting we were invited into the dining room and was served a delicious repass. Mrs. Pemberton and Mrs. Beatrice Dunlap were hostesses for the occasion. We had an enjoyable evening.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Eva Lyons, 903 Drew Street.

Adult Club

The Adult Educational Club met at the home of Mrs. Hastie Price. "Come to Jesus" open son, led by Mrs. Price. Invocation said by Mrs. Mary Withspoon. Song, "Blessed Assurance." Scripture reading the 19 Psalm by Mrs. C. K. Brown. The meeting was prepared by Pearl Gibson. After the business meeting was over, Mrs. Hastie Price invited the group in the dining room and served a delicious repass to the following members: Mrs. C. K. Brown, Mrs. Ruth Ford, Mrs. Mary Dove, Mrs. Pearl Gibson, Mrs. Agnes Hinton, Mrs. Hastie Price, and Mrs. Mary Withspoon. Mrs. Brown thanked the hostess. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Mary Withspoon on Homeland Avenue. Closed in order. Mrs. Pearl Gibson, president; Agnes Hinton, secretary.

A. Brown Enlists

Alfred Aster Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Sinclair Brown of 411 Dunstan Street, Durham, N.C., has enlisted in the U.S. Navy, under the Navy's new 180-day program.

This program authorizes the Navy to enlist qualified young men and give them up to 180 days delay in reporting for active duty. By enlisting under this program, Alfred has gained several advantages over other enlistments in that the delay time prior to reporting for active duty counts toward completion of MILITARY OBLIGATION; builds up lon-

Little River Class Of 1972 Holds Reunion

Highlighting the activities of the Little River High School 1972 Class Reunion was an evening of dining and dancing, Saturday, June 10, 1972 at the Downtowner Motor Inn. Members began gathering at 7:15 and were greeted by Bennie Bullock and Mrs. Evelyn Hart Clements, host and hostess for the occasion.

The welcome was given by Bennie Bullock and during the only quiet moments of the evening, grace was given by their former agriculture teacher, Mr. J. L. Moffit, Sr. A most delicious buffet dinner was enjoyed by all.

Next in order was the introduction of former teachers. Celebrating the occasion with the class were Mrs. J. C. Locust, Mrs. E. Tuck, Mrs. L. Hooker, Mrs. Violet P. Rogers, Mrs. Ervin Johnson, Mr. J. L. Moffit, Sr. and the former principal, Mr. C. B. Nixon.

Admire a setting of pink carnations and flickering candles, the class now settled down and were receptive of most inspiring words from their class president, Mr. Lafayette Jones, followed by encouragement from their former principal, Mr. C. B. Nixon and each teacher. Mr. Ervin Johnson, our speaker for the evening, spoke of the many opportunities that have been afforded Blacks over the last decade. He admonished each member to take full advantage of these opportunities as it is most vital that we all become involved if we are to be able to carry our fair share of the load in the society of today.

After all was said and done the group enjoyed several hours of dancing. Although the tempo was slightly slower, everyone joined in and danced the night away.

Class members present were Sarah Parrish, Mrs. Janie R. Wilson, Mrs. Lois D. Boone, Mrs. Carol S. Burton, Mrs. Evelyn H. Clements, Mrs. Lavenia G. Carter, Mrs. Annie C. Hedgspeth, Mrs. Linda B. Vanhook, Bennie Bullock, Lafayette Jones, Charlie Parrish, Robert McCall, Tradell Thompson, Percy Harris, Lindsey Riley, Claude Brown and Willie Vanhook.

Thanks to all guests including Mrs. J. L. Moffit, Sr. and Mr. J. T. Rogers, a special thanks to all class members for making this evening one to remember.

CLASS OF '47 MEETS

Meeting was held at the home of member Beatrice Davis Smith, Sunday, June 11, at 6 p.m.

There were 16 members present. Meeting consisted completely of a tentative program for our coming re-union in August.

Next meeting will be at the home of member William "Shorty" Allen, 1025 Devincie Street at 6 p.m. June 25, 1972.

Guys And Dolls Holds Initiation Ceremony

The Delta Chapter of Guys and Dolls, Inc. recently held their initiation ceremony for nine new families at the home of Doll Bernice Clark.

The mother from left to right represents her family. Seated, mesdames—Ronald Patterson, John Amey, Oliver Hodge, John Roseboro and Charles Joyner. Standing, Lloyd Piersaw, Henry Brooks, S.L. Jordan and Robert Young.

The traditional setting for the ceremony included a table draped with white to symbolize purity with (13) thirteen apple green candles which symbolize the high ideals for which the organization stands: (1) Loyalty (2) Devotion (3) Truth (4) Faith (5) Love (6) Understanding (7) Hope (8) Friendliness (9) Integrity (10)

Peace (11) Temperance (12) Patience (13) Courtesy. The Bible which symbolizes prayer and faith to hold the organization together was placed to the right of the candles.

Each new family was presented a certificate, an I.D. card, a corsage of white carnations with green ribbons, and a package containing club information.

Each member present participated in making the evening a success by giving explanations of the club's motto, Karrousel, Travel-On, purposes and other important club activities. Dolls Margaret Quiett and Melba Thompson gave an explanation and presentation of the club's national emblem.

It was emphasized by the membership that each family is expected to uphold the by-laws, high ideals, to abide by the Constitution of the organization and to always contribute to its progress to the fullest extent by cooperating in every respect.

The Delta Chapter was happy to have the Sneed family to reunite with them after a series of traveling experiences and two additions to the family.

The activities climaxed with a fellowship and social hour.

VISIT FRIEND

Miss Sarah Cameron of 903 Carroll Street spent the weekend in Kinston, N.C. visiting friends and relatives. Mrs. Cameron was the house guest of the W. K. Burney and Mr. Kalop Colley.

$19 for the look you want... the comfort you need... Rescoe Griffin Shoes 114 W. MAIN ST.