

I LOOKED AND I SAW

By REV. STONE

There are many objectives in our world that could be reached if only each person would find his relationship with God our Maker. Many loose ends that are not put together by men like us, will not cause things to work as they ought unless we use what we have to glorify God through men. In reality, God has no hands except ours. Therefore, each individual should use what he has to please the God of his salvation.

There should be a type of hunger within man that drives him into action. In other words, one isn't satisfied until that which is out of rhythm or order is placed back into operation. When man has little or nothing to offer God in return for restoring order to our confused world, there must be a cause. A problem never exists without a cause.

Henry Van Dyke, a religious thinker said, "Self is the only prison that can ever vindict the soul." In other words, man enslaves his own soul or very often leaves himself open when someone does it for him, but basically, the individual is responsible. If a man's soul is bound where he may not worship his God under any circumstance, then man somewhere along the way enslaved his own soul. In essence, man sold out to a god that failed him at the time that he needed him most.

On one occasion in biblical history Paul and Silas were bound in a Philippian jail but their souls were not bound, therefore, they were free in the sight of God because they had done no wrong for their enslavement.

He who hath ears to hear - let him hear.

WORDS FOR THE WORLD

THE MATERIAL WORLD is the world of corruption and death. It is the world of evil and darkness, of animalism and ferocity, of bloodthirstiness, ambition and avarice, of self-worship, egotism and passion; it is the world of nature. Man must strip himself of all these imperfections.

GOD AND ME

By Donald Love

By DONALD LOVE
This is a personal declaration every one has to make sometime in the life time of that individual. You can not send any one in your place, this is your task. It does not necessarily have to be in the life time of that or any person, you will have to meet him dead or alive. This just might sound strange to you but it has to be done.

One of the strangest things about man is, he is so doubtful. He does not believe anything nor any body. It is amazing how man rejects and will not accept how God created and the method He used. Because the world was not put together the way man would have done it, now it is wrong.

We have two forces, good and evil. The good force is or could be classified as positive and evil as negative. The two forces are controlled by two spirits, God and the Devil. It so happens that God is in control of both but he allows the devil to be the chief of this evil force with limited power. We say: "The Devil is mighty but God is almighty." We confess, the devil answers to God.

When God met the devil and man in the Garden of Eden and issued curses upon the devil, man and woman for disobeying Him. The devil has not done what God said not do. He has followed the commands of God. Can man make these claims? Out of all of God's creation, man caused more trouble than all others combined.

You might wonder, why man has caused so much trouble? Man is possessed with both forces, good and evil. Man also has a choice to make over and above the other creation. When God blew into man the breath of life and man became a living soul, God did not do this to any of His other creations. When the devil persuaded woman to do what God said don't do, then is when this evil force entered both man and woman.

God spoke to vegetation and commanded it to do certain things, but it has never crossed God as yet. You have never seen pear trees producing plums, grape vines bearing berries, oak trees bearing acorns, later begin to produce oranges. The same is true with the animal kingdom: the fish of the sea, the fowls of the air and beast of the field. All of these obey God except man.

God has punished man so many times, but man desires to be rebellious and brings more of God's wrath down on him. The world was destroyed once due to man fighting back at God. God used water and wiped man off the face of the earth, saved eight: Noah and his family. God wiped out a city once by means of fire and brimstone, save Lot and his family. As much as God has done to man because of his stiff neck against Him, when will man turn to his Maker?

Cities were lost by means of wars due to this fight back man used against God. We have nations today that believe not in God. And nations just as ours, America, who say that we believe in God. Why are we so afraid of the ungodly powers?

David, just a boy, challenged a man, not even a man but a giant of a man. He remembered how God took care of him when out on the plains with his flock. All kinds of wild beast would slip into his herd seeking food for themselves and no doubt their young but David's task was to look after his father's flock. He remembered the bear he killed with his bare hands, the lion he killed also with bare hands. He knew that was not David, he gave credit where credit was due and that was to God. Now faith has come and he is more determined now than ever to take on this giant in the name of the Lord for the Lord.

Man knows nothing but wars. He can tell more about war than any other subject. I am not referring to America, this is a world wide problem. We have wars and rumors of wars. It is unbelievable just how many wars we have today. All the wars we have had up to now is due to man constant rebelling against God, and God is pouring His wrath out on man due to this disobedient heart. When man turns to God as he should and as God requires of him, not America only but man as a whole, then we can lay our swords down, remake our war armaments into garden and farming tools.

I have a part to play in bringing about good relationship among man. The love that I am suppose to have should rob off me on to someone else. Did I carry myself so this could have been done? When God gets me by myself with Him, this and other questions I will be asked by Him. I have been called into judgement by my maker as to how I conducted myself doing the things He required of me. Doing my best will be a fruitful time when we meet, God and me.
