KINGSTON, JAMAICA — The referee stops the world heavyweight fight with his outstretched arms as challenger Foreman walks across the ring from defeated Joe Frazier after the last knockdown.

Worked Harder.
LUSAKA, Zambia — Foreign Minister Timothy Kan-kasa commented during a tour of a railroad yard that Zambians worked harder and took more pride in their jobs when this country was the British territory of Northern Rhodesia. Zambia became independent in 1964.

St. Augustine's And Shaw Uni. Suffer Defeat

The near capacity crowd at Broughton's Holiday Gymnasium last Saturday night got a glimpse of what they will probably see at the upcoming 28th annual CIAA Tournament which will be played in Greensboro, February 22-24.

It was a typical display of basketball, CIAA style as the two home teams, St. Augustine's and Shaw, went down to defeat at the hands of two of the leading Southern Division teams, Winston-Salem and Johnson C. Smith.

In the first game the Falcons fell behind by 22 points at intermission and were unable to catch up in the second half as the Rams romped to a 98-85 victory. Then in the second game in a nip and tuck affair, the Golden Bulls of Johnson C. Smith prevailed with a 69-64 win over the Bears of Shaw.

A combination of St. Aug's errors and the shooting of Winston Salem was the downfall for the Falcons. Coach Harvey Heartley's cagers committed 12 turnovers in the first 20 minutes and the Rams were hitting from everywhere to build up a 51-29 halftime cushion.

In the second half, the homesteaders gave the league leading Rams a run for their money but the first half deficit was too much for the Falcons to overcome. Late in the second half, St. Aug's rallied behind the shooting of Lloyd Merriman and Calvin Rand to cut the margin to 12 points but this was as close as the homesteaders could come. Coach Harvey Heartley had five players in double figure scoring but the backcourt pair of Sandy Smith and James Hooker was too much for the homesteaders. Earl Brown and Larry Gooding each had 16 points in a losing cause and MAHAMMAD ALI said he begged Joe Frazier for a return match, now it's all over. "The people can see how bad I hurt him." Ali is booked for the next 3-months and wants to fight all contenders, then may be next year fight George Foreman for the title.
