Hillside Precinct GOPs To Meet At School Friday, February 3

All persons registered as Republicans at the Hillside Precinct (No. 1), are requested to meet at Hillside High School, 7:30 p.m., Friday, February 3.

The meeting is in keeping with a move to improve black involvement in Republican politics, on the local, state and national levels. It is the result of a mandate given by the Republican State organization to a Minorities Division, at its 1972 meeting.

The part Durham blacks played in the November election, county organization, patronage and better communication with Raleigh and Washington will be the topics of discussion. County and state officers are expected to be in attendance. Frank Montgomery, chairman, and Bill Sessoms, member of the Durham County Board of Elections have been invited, along with Frank Rouse, state chairman and Russell Baringer, top finance officer.

Republican chairmen of other black precincts have been invited to be present. Alexander Barnes is chairman of the precinct.
