

-BRIEFS

Continued from front page he will step down as president of the black school in June. Hurst's resignation came on the eve of a secret board meeting called to determine his future at the school. "If the board asks for a resignation effective immediately," Hurst said, "I will take every avenue available to remain in the post until the charges of mismanagement are cleared."

THREE CHARGED IN '64 RIGHT SLAYING FREED

JACKSON, Miss. —(NBNS)—Federal indictments against three men in the slayings of three young civil rights workers in 1964 have been dropped. U.S. District Court Judge William H. Cox signed an order earlier this week freeing E.G. Garnett, Edgar Ray Killen, and Jerry M. Sharpe. The three were among 18 alleged Ku Klux Klansmen originally indicted on federal conspiracy charges stemming from the deaths of James Chaney, Michael Schwerner, and Andrew Goodman. Seven of the defendants were convicted and sentenced to terms in federal prison and eight were acquitted. Mistrials were declared for Barnett, Killen, and Sharpe when a federal court jury was unable to reach a verdict in their cases.

-PRINCE

Continued from front page their pleasant adventure. "Hey, look at us making friends back here," shouted a black Central High girl, who wore a blond wig clowning around in the school auditorium as she invited television film crews to film her and her white companions. There was no violence. The only demonstrations were a group of about 25 white parents who quietly picketed against busing at an elementary school and a group of American Nazis who rode around in a yellow school bus with a "White Power" sign on it. School Supt. Carl W. Hassell called the increased attendance gratifying in light of the vocal opposition to the busing plan before it was implemented. The biggest problem surprisingly to many parents, was the continuation of mixups in bus scheduling but school officials hoped to work them out in the next week.

-SO DOES

Continued from front page The President has demonstrated contempt for Congress and its power. He even refuses to spend the money Congress has appropriated for essential programs. To counteract the efforts of Administration cutbacks, Wilkins said, the Congress "must rise in protest." He added that the Conference would dedicate itself anew to programs which assure equal opportunity for blacks and pledged the cooperation of its members to those Congressmen "who pursue these same objectives."

-HOOKS

Continued from front page and waiting. It is now time for the media to respond and for Blacks to prepare themselves." Media hearings conducted by the Congressional Black Caucus last March produced statistics that prove Blacks are systematically excluded from employment on most levels at newspapers, magazines, radio and television stations. Although Blacks account for 11% of the nation's population, they hold only 6% of the professional jobs in broadcasting, only 2.5% of the editorial positions on magazines and only about 1% on newspapers.

Representatives of communications firms seeking Black employees are being invited to screen and interview Black graduates and professionals at Howard's Cramton auditorium. Opportunity for immediate placement will be possible through recruiting stations at the Conference.

-ORDAINED

Continued from front page composer and liturgist and who composed much of the music featured in the ordination. Among those attending the ceremony was Fayette Mayor Charles Evers who said, "it is a great day for us in Mississippi but it is long overdue in the country." He said he hoped Bishop Howze's ordination would unite "not only all Catholics but also persons of other denominations If we are not going to do this, this has all just been a show."

Q.—To settle a disagreement in my family, can you tell me if many veterans participate in job and farm training programs under the G.I. Bill?

A.—In Fiscal Year 1972 (ending June 30) there were nearly 170,000 veterans in on-job training programs, which is 20,000 more than in FY 1971 and nine times the total in FY 1968.

Q.—What is the income limit governing entitlement to non-service-connected disability and death pensions for veterans?

A.—The income limit to such pensions for a veteran or widow with no dependents is $2,600, and $3,800 for a veteran or widow with dependents.

A total of 2,416,380 persons entered Yosemite National Park in 1971.

VETS QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q.—If I purchase a mobile home with a VA guaranteed loan, just what does this guarantee?

A.—VA guarantees up to 30 percent of loans—up to a maximum of $10,000 for mobile homes and up to $17,500 if the loan covers a lot as well as the mobile home. The guarantee usually permits eligible veterans and widows to arrange 'no down payment' loans with private lending institutions.
