NEWS OF BEAUTY

BASIC BEAUTY

One of the most coveted gifts a woman can give herself is a year around basic beauty care—and simultaneous adherence to the ever-changing nuances of fashion in beauty.

It needn't be a costly regimen, either, according to Max Factor, the internationally-known make-up authority. Key it to spring beauty bargains, he says. Take advantage of these traditional events and stock up on the essentials they feature. You'll even find such favorites as the popular Pure Magic make-up that help sensitive skin achieve beguiling new beauty, a large-size cologne fragrance special in the scintuous floral fantasy of Hypnotique, a fashionable and funful new Pure Magic Super Shadow Buff On Eye Color in eight toned-in tones that promise to turn eyes on in a symphony of color, and the innovative Ultra-Lucent Whipped Creme Make-Up, which provides beauty and face care all in one quick application.

Income from more than 1.8 million persons age 65 or older is provided by the Veterans Administration in the form of compensation and pension for veterans and their survivors.

OPERATION MILKSHAKE

To an American youngster, a milkshake is a between-meals snack... an after-lunch dessert... an excuse for rapping with friends at the soda fountain.

But through Catholic Relief Services, 20,000 children in war-battered South Vietnam are getting a "milkshake" that means the difference between health and malnutrition. Often a child's only nutritious meal of the day, it's a blend of corn, soy beans, milk, sugar and water. Young Vietnamese say it's tasty, too.

To treat your Vietnamese counterpart to health, take up a class collection or scatter drop-in coin containers at strategic points in your neighborhood. Then send the collection to any Catholic church or to American Catholic Overseas Aid Fund, Empire State Building, New York, N.Y. 10001. All that hungry Vietnamese children want is a fair shake.
