Baha'i Speaker Appears on the Mann TV Show

Mr. Allah Kuli Kalantar, a native of Iran and a Baha'i of many years, is on an extensive speaking tour of North Carolina this month, which included Durham on February 8. His Durham appearances included an appearance on the "Peggy Mann Show" of that date and an informal meeting at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Paul Lang, 502 North Maple Street.

His talk focused upon the discussion of God as an "Unknown Essence" who sends Manifestations in each age, fulfilling the eternal Covenant—never to leave man comfortless. Mr. Kalantar spoke of the divine missions of Moses, Christ, Mohammad, and other Messengers of God, and of the missions of Baha'ullah, the Messenger of God for this age, to bring the realization of the unity of the human race and the fulfillment of the Christ-promised "Kingdom of God on earth." Mr. Kalantar referred to signs of the turbulence of mankind and stated, "it (mankind) is sticking to the old light; it has not recognized the new highway that God has prepared."

Mr. Kalantar's appearances include radio, television, and newspaper interviews in Chapel Hill, Greensboro, Tyrone and Henderson; public meetings; high school and university appearances at the University of North Carolina Wesleyan University, Guilford College, and North Carolina State University where he is lecturing on the Baha'i Faith, art, and socio-economic subjects.

Before retirement, Mr. Kalantar worked as a chemist in the research department of the Shell Oil Company, Texaco, Socony Vacuum Oil Co., and the Dupont Company.

He has also served as manager of the Persian Art Center in New York City and has given exhibitions and lectures on the symbolism of design and color in oriental art; and the culture philosophy and history of Iran in galleries, department stores, museums, and universities throughout the United States.

As a Baha'i pioneer and lecturer, he has lived and traveled in Costa Rica, Mexico, Columbia, and throughout the United States and Canada.
