

GIBSON

NROTC Leader Named At NCCU

Commander Clifford W. Gibson assumed command today of the Naval ROTC unit at North Carolina Central University, succeeding Commander Raymond A. Lambert.

Lambert will be assigned as executive officer of Fleet Composite Squadron 2, Oceana Naval Air Station, Virginia Beach, Va.

Gibson entered the Navy in 1955 and received his commission in November of that year. He is a graduate of Morris Brown College and received the M.S.A. degree in management engineering from George Washington University.

He was promoted to Commander in 1972.

Lambert was associate chairman of the chemistry department at the U. S. Naval Academy from July 1970 to July 1972 when he took command of the new NROTC unit at NCCU.

Country Property Sales Up — Again

KANSAS CITY, MO. — Sales of farms, ranches, and other types of rural real estate continued on a steady upward trend last year, according to one of the nation's largest real estate organizations.

United Farm Agency, Inc., which operates in 35 states, reported a 48-year record high in sales volume of $297,800,000 for 1972, a gain of 30 per cent over the previous year.

President Norman C. McCain said sales of farms and ranches topped all other categories with 47 per cent of the total volume last year. Undeveloped property over three acres ranked second in demand, followed by business properties, country homes, and recreational land, in that order.

-Pageant

Johnson, Chautina Maxwell, Debra Montgomery, Jaren McCombs, Cheryl McCullough, Sylvia McGill, Pamela Palmer, Precious Plummer, Angela Rush, Sandra Springs, Denise Tate, Ann Walden and Yolanda Woods.

Honors went to Beverly Powell of Rocky Mount who was voted by the girls as "Miss Personality". Sylvia McGill raised the highest amount of money through ticket sales. She is to be commended for her keen interest in what the proceeds of the pageant would be used for. The theme of the 2 day Second Annual Pageant was "charity for the local Sickle Cell Program".

Professional entertainment added to the excitement of the event with talent like Charlotte's Yvette Walker, a student at Howard University School of Music; the Soul Patrols from Winston-Salem, ages 9-14; and jazz vocalist, Jeanette Deavers. LeRoy Oliver Reeder and Teresa Howell of Johnson C. Smith University were the MC's and added their charm to the enjoyment of the evening.

An abundance of prizes and gratuities were supplied by the following: Pepsi Cola Company, Ervin Company (Resident Sales Division), Evergreen and Charlotte Flower and Basket Company Florists, Fashion Jewels of Winston-Salem and Delta Airlines.

Plans are already under way for the 1974 pageant which will be held in Charlotte. Mrs. Hunt stated that each year more and more emphasis will be placed on making the pageant more meaningful by setting her objectives to raise funds for a worthy cause. This year's funds, she announced, were presented to Mrs. Peggy Beckwith, Executive Director of the Association for Sickle Cell Disease - Charlotte-Mecklenburg.

Teenagers who are interested in getting off to an early start for next year's pageant may contact Mrs. Adelaide Hunt, 4620 Meridian Drive, Charlotte.
