

COSMETOLOGIST CLUB CHAPTER NO. 1 ENDS YEAR
Cosmetologist Club Chapter No. 1 climaxed their 72-73 year with a Singing Festival and Tiny Tot Contest.

The program was held June 10, 1973 at Mt. Vernon Baptist Church. Music was furnished by Mt. Vernon's Young Adult Choir, Jr. Male Chorus and Young Adult Choir of Union Baptist Church.

There were five children in the contest: they were little Miss Charmelita Rena Royster the winner, sponsored by Mrs. Cora McLead runner ups as follows: 2nd Master Gerald Lee sponsored by Mrs. Beatrice Moss, 3rd Master Donald Lee Houser sponsored by Mrs. Gladys Best, 4th Miss Benita Jones sponsored by Mrs. Willie Mae Brockmon and 5th Master Eric Lennon sponsored by Mrs.

Shirley Lennon. Each Lot received a gift. All members worked to make the program an overwhelling success. The beautiful music by each choir was enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served afterward. Lots in contest from left to right Master Eric Lennon, Miss Benita Jones, Miss Charmelita Royster, Master Gerald Lee and Master Donald Houser.

Champion Typist To Appear In Chatham County

PITTSBORO — The Rev. J. A. Brown, general chairman, 48th session of the Durham District Sunday School Convention and Ministers' & Laymen's Institute, which opened at Mitchell AME Zion Church, Monday night, announced at the opening session that Cortez Peters, Jr., president, Cortez Peters School, Washington, D. C., recognized as one of the world's best typists, would give a demonstration, at 5 p.m. Wednesday, during the recreational period.

The Rev. Mr. Brown told the opening audience that this was another feature, provided by the Public Relations Department of the AME Zion Church, to involve the denomination in the whole life of the youth.

Mr. Peters, the son of the late Cortez Peters, Sr., world champion typist, is following in the footsteps of his father.

He is known to type as many as 210 words-a-minute. The demonstration is being given to show how one can get mastery over the typewriter keys and thus become an expert typist.

It is in connection with a national recruiting effort, by the Washington business school, to take advantage of the convenient offers available to get a business education.

DALLAS STREET COMMUNITY CLUB MEETS

The club held its regular monthly meeting Saturday at 7 p. m. at the home of Rev. and Mrs. B. A. Mack, 2204 Dallas Street with Mrs. Mack, the president, presiding. The meeting was opened.

Plans for the annual picnic were made and will be held Saturday, July 7, at six o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Pulley, 2200 Dallas St.

The Family Rally will be held the fourth Saturday in July at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mangum. Others present were: Mesdames Lena Evans, Mary Evans, Carrie Brooks, Vadora Henderson, Nannie Lyons and Mabel Mangum, a sick member.

The hostess, Mrs. Pulley, served a very delicious repast.

Squaws Sponsor A Cocktail Sip

The Durham Chapter of Squaws entertained Jarom Amadi, at a cocktail sip, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Harrington. Mr. Amadi, editor of the East African Standard, was in Durham as a guest of Duke University's International Visitors Services. Durham Squaws and Braves attending, in addition to the Harringtons were: Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Atwater, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Eaves, Mr. and Mrs. Quinton Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Long, Mesdames Cecelia Barnes, Shirley Green, Rosemary Johnson, William Harris, and Mrs. Marian Covington, president of the local chapter of Squaws.

FRIENDLY COMPETITION ENDED — The men and women of Community Baptist enjoyed friendly competition in fund-raising.

Shown above is the Rev. Mrs. Pattie Walker with Nathaniel Daniels. The "Woman of the Year" Mrs.

Walker and the women raised more than $700.00. "The Man of the Year" Mr. Daniels and the men raised more than $900.00. The men beat the women by more than $200.00. This is an annual occasion. The Rev. Dr. E. T. Thompson is pastor of Community Baptist.

One problem for the soul-searching documentary, "An American Family," is that it comes on when most American families are watching "Ironside."

Hotels in Zambia will not register women who are wearing hot pants. It's always best to know these things before planning your vacation.

"The World Around Us"

When we begin to observe the world of living things, it may be interesting to note how man matures and rules over the earth. There is a common fact that should be considered with regards to plants and animals. If plants and animals are to grow toward maturity, they must have a sufficient source of strength.

First, let us look for a moment at the plant kingdom. The herb yielding seeds came into existence before man was made. Therefore, man cannot truly claim that he is the primary source for survival of the plant kingdom. Further, it is amazing to note that man was given the privilege to name some things within the world, but man cannot attribute his success to knowledge. He possesses alone. Today, in a changing world, a man brings to the surface many new ideas not previously known, but there exists a divine force among us that creates.

As men have sought from time to time to know more about the world, many helpful ideals which were alright twenty years ago must be replaced if better living for all is to become a reality. Each individual is able to contribute greatly toward the goal for better living in the world around us by finding and using the talent that God has given him. While waiting for changes around us to become realities, one should work for a better tomorrow. If he fails to work while he waits, the world around us may not be changed for the betterment of all.

He who hath ears to hear—let him hear.

MISS HARRIS

Church Woman Buried in D. C.

WASHINGTON — Final rites for Miss Armalie R. Harris, veteran worker in the affairs of the AME Zion Church, on local, district and national levels, were held in Galbrath Church, Thursday, June 21, with interment in Lincoln Memorial Cemetery.

The Rev. Stephen Paul Spottswood was in charge and the Rev. J. C. Hoggard delivered the eulogy. According to Bishop Hoggard, the final rites represented the greatest pomp and splendor she was ever known to have been a part of. She was pictured as a person who wrought much in a humble and dedicated way, devoid of fanfare and shorn of pride.

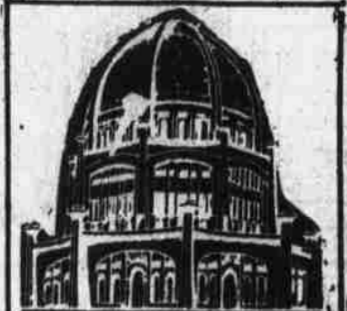

She was born in Mobile, Alabama, where she showed so much promise in Big Zion Church, when Dr. L. W. Kyles was elected as bishop in 1916; he employed her as his secretary, starting her in a role that took her to the top in church circles. Her finest work is believed to have been done in the Woman's Home & Foreign Missionary Society, where she rose from district recording secretary to national recording secretary, where she served two four-year terms.

She served as secretary to four persons, who had charge of the foreign Mission work of the denomination. She also worked for the federal government for a number of years. She was a lover of music and devoted much of her time to training children to blend their voices in songs of praise.

Through the years we have developed an ever-deepening rapport with our friends and neighbors we serve.

This is the achievement on which our reputation rests and which we will maintain at any cost in time and dedication. It is our pledge to the community.

WORDS FOR THE WORLD

MIRACLES are not a proof. For if they are proofs for those who are present, they fail as proofs to those who are absent... The meaning is not that the Manifestations are unable to perform miracles... But for them inner sight, spiritual healing, and eternal life all the... important things.
