Meet of Alphas To Convene in New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, La. — The 67th Anniversary Convention of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., will be held here August 3-9 at the Fairmont Hotel. More than 10,000 members and their families are expected to participate. The convention last met in the Crescent City in 1937, and for some it will be their first visit in the Deep South.

According to Walter E. Morial, general convention chairman and a native of New Orleans, everything is being done to make "our visiting brothers, families and guests comfortable and enjoyable. We say to all - 'Just get here, and let us do the rest.'" Mrs. Charles C. (Mary) Teamer is chairman and coordinator for the Women's and Children's activities.

Although New Orleans is known for its famous Mardi Gras, it is a great sports town, and Dr. Albert Bloom, chairman of the Golf Tournament, announced that the N.O.A.O.G.T. (New Orleans Alpha Open Golf Tournament) will be one of the main attractions for the athletic-minded. The tournament is attracting much attention among the local golfers and promises to be quite a competition in the several classes. The tournament is open to both women and men.

Both Morial and Mrs. Teamer have released schedules of activities that include separate and joint activities for men and women that include a Ballet and Reception on Sunday, following the Public Program, at the Longue Vue Gardens; the Invitational Golf Tournament, Monday, in addition to the Ladies Luncheon and Fashion Show and a Mini-Mardi Gras Ball; on Tuesday, there will be a Matinee Theater Party and Luncheon at the Beverly Play House and the Inter-Greek Dance.

Dr. Walter Washington, president of Alcorn A&M College, Lorman, Miss., will preside over the convention. He succeeded Juvenile Court Judge Ernest N. Morial of New Orleans, as president of the nation's oldest Greek Letter Fraternity, founded by Negroes. Alpha Phi Alpha was founded in 1906 on the campus of Cornell University by seven black students. President Washington announced that the theme of the convention will be "The New Agenda - A Dedication To Brotherhood."

Beta Phi Chapter Entertains Families And Guests

SAUCY SUPPER SANDWICHES (Makes 6 sandwiches)

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 package (10 ounces) frozen broccoli spears | 1 tablespoon prepared mustard |
| 6 servings thinly sliced cooked ham | 1/2 cup (2½-ounce can) drained finely chopped mushrooms |
| 2 tablespoons butter | 6 slices toasted white or rye bread |
| 2 tablespoons flour | 1/2 cup grated Cheddar cheese |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt | |
| 2 cups undiluted Carnation Evaporated Milk | |

Cook broccoli according to package directions. Wrap ham in foil and heat in slow oven (325° F.) until warm. Melt butter in saucepan over medium heat. Blend in flour and salt. Gradually add evaporated milk; stir until blended. Cook over medium heat until smooth and thickened; stir constantly. Stir in mustard, lemon juice and mushrooms. Place one slice toast in bottom of each of 6 individual casseroles or all six slices on cookie sheet. Top each slice of toast with one serving hot ham and 2 to 3 spears hot cooked broccoli. Spoon about 1/3 cup sauce over each sandwich; sprinkle with grated cheese. Broil 30 seconds or until cheese melts.
