produce produce 19 cotton, 41 produce corn and 42 produce wheat.

SOME HUDDLE - When this group gets together around this time of the year they generally talk about the Whitney M. Young, Jr. Memorial Football Classic. But the conversation was somewhat altered by the presence of Roseletta Petty, the first Miss Black Teenage World. Roseletta hails from Hawaii and attended the New York Urban League reception hosted by Schenley Distillers. Left to right are: Bernard Jackson, co-chairman of the game; Miss Black Teenage World; Livingston L. Wingate, executive director of the New York Urban League; Walter Christmas, Coca Cola executive; and William H. Toles, board chairman, New York Urban League. Morgan State meets Grambling in the classic at Yankee Stadium on Saturday, Sept. 22nd. For ticket information call (212) 749-7452 or contact your local Urban League office.
