Squaws, Incorporated Inducts New Chapter In Savannah, Ga.

Members of Squaws, Inc., converged upon the city of Savannah, Georgia, October 5-7, for the induction of a new chapter into the national organization. Headquarters for the group was the Desoto Hilton Hotel. The installation of the Savannah Chapter brings the total number to 10 chapters in 6 states. States represented are: Georgia, Michigan, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Texas. The weekend festivities began with a "Get Aquainted" party Friday evening at the F.O. P. Club in Savannah. Saturday's activities began with breakfast in the Pulaski Room of the Desoto Hilton. At 10:00 a.m., Squaws and Braves boarded the Harbor Queen for a cruise down the Savannah River. The ship docked at the pier, while Squaws and Braves had lunch at Tassey's Pier Restaurant. The group was met and greeted at Tassey's Pier by the Mayor of Savannah. During the installation service, which was held following the luncheon, the Braves returned to the Harbor Queen, where they were entertained by the prospective Savannah Braves. Upon completion of the installation, the cruise was continued.
