Predicting a fast moving offense, Reynolds two-time Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference tournament champions hope to make it an unprecedented three straight when the affair is held in Baltimore Maryland in February of 1974.

Livingstone College Football Team Reported In Good Shape

SALISBURY — "We're in good shape now," replied Livingstone College football coach Baxter Holman after his Fighting Bears downed Fayetteville State University, 34-20 recently at Alumni Stadium.

"We were able to move the ball and put it in when we had to," stated the Livingstone mentor. The Bears collected just 167 yards total offense but won the game on key passes by quarterback Randy Nichols.

Livingstone is now 2-1 in the Central Inter-Collegiate Athletic Association standings and 4-1-1 overall. The Bears have already surpassed last year's record of 2-8. Fayetteville slumped to 2-3 for the season.

Nichols, a crafty

165-pounder from Miami, Fla., joined the Livingstone squad as a freshman this fall. He completed six out of 11 passes for 127 yards. He threw for two touchdowns and ran for another.

"My quarterback (Nichols) used a good selection of plays," Holman commented. "He and our kicker, Andrew Cooney, kept us in business."

Cooney, another freshman, kept Fayetteville out of good field position by booting excellent punts. He punted four times for an average of 41.2 yards. He also made four out of five extra-point kicks.

Despite Livingstone's success in the air, it was stopped cold on the ground. The Bears collected just 40

PRINCESS ANNE, Md. — Eugene Carmichael scored three touchdowns and Tyrone Boykins kicked a crucial point-after score as N. C. Central nipped Maryland-Eastern Shore 21-20 Saturday in a Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference game.

It was a sweet victory for Eagle Coach Willie Smith, who left Eastern Shore last year to become NCCU's head coach.

The win pushed the Eagles to 3-0 in league play and kept them in second place behind league-leading Howard. NCCU is 5-2 in all games while UMES is 1-3 and 2-4.

Trailing 20-14 going into the fourth quarter, Central got the go-head touchdown after a pass interference call against the Hawks put the ball on Maryland's 17.

Carmichael bulled his way for 10 yards and James Smith added four to put the ball on the three. Then Carmichael went in for the score, tying the game 20-20. Boykins then kicked what proved to be the winning point.

Maryland took a 7-0 lead in the first period as quarterback Charlie Boston scored from nine yards out to cap a 65-yard drive. Stanley Perry booted the point-after score.

Central bounced back in the second quarter and tied the game at 7-7.

After recovering a fumble, at the Eastern Shore 29, the Eagles scored with 7:27 left in the half. Carmichael scored from two yards out and Boykins added the extra point to knot the score.

play in the third quarter, allowing the Eagles only 13 offensive plays. But the Hawks came up with another score for a 13-7 lead.

Thomas Samuels scored on a two-yard pass from Boston. Perry missed the PAT.

Stampeding Howard U. Bisons Smother A&T Aggies 43-7

GREENSBORO — The talent rich 1973 Howard University of football team, one of the seven black college eleven of the past 50 years, fitted with every possible long distance scoring potential made the stubborn North Carolina Aggies a seventh consecutive victim here at Memorial Stadium Saturday night by a margin of 43-7. A disbelieving throng of 12,000 fans saw the two ambitious Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference rivals exchange mayhem without a score until the victors crowned a 68 yard ten play-drive with Anthony Tapps, 4 year scoring blast, with 1:50 remaining in the first quarter. Julius Gamble a freshman from Greenville, S. C. converted for a 7-0 lead.

Coach Hornsby Howells team answered the Bison break through with an immediate 80 yard scoring rebuttal of their own utilizing passes to gain 10 12 38 yards aerial measures that culminated in a 1 yard touchdown lunge by William Medley at 12:40 of the second period when Dwight Mettles added the conversion for a 7-7 tie. A screaming excess of Aggie fans made ready for what promised to be a terrific battle.

From that point however the revived thundering herd began a stampede that included Gambles' field goals that measured 25 32 and 45 yards respectively, along with a sensational Michael Banks to Eddie Richardson touchdown pass of 61 yards and a 22-to-7 Howard lead at halftime. Greeted and congratulated by Dr. James E. Cheek, president of Howard during a surprise halftime interim visit.

The victors opened the third quarter with devastating a ground attack of 2 3 12 9 16 8 11 and 4 yards to set up an 8 yard. Banks Richardson scoring pass Gambles kick made it a 29-7 game. The Aggies were unable to retaliate mainly because the Bison defensive front sacked quarterback Paul McKibbins for a total of 69 yards. An overworked Aggie defense was bull dozed by a sharp blocking Bison offensive front leading to another 69 yards 12 play. Howard stampede in the third period. Another drive of 64 yard barrage hiked the score T9 32-7 and Gamble converted for a 36-7 count.

Notable Bison defensive features included a pass interception and 35 yards

SLICK FLOOR PROTEST WALK — DETROIT: Pistons coach Ray Scott (L) and Golden State coach Al Attles (R) argue with NBA referees Darel Garretson (L) and Paul Mihalek (R) (top) about the condition of the playing floor at Cobo Hall 10/10 as members of the Golden State Warriors walk off the court in protest mid-way through the first quarter of the Detroit Pistons-Golden State Warriors basketball game (bottom). After three interruption due to players falling on the slick floor the game was called.

Virginia State Trojans Return to CIAA Action on Sat., October 27

By William T. Flippen, SID

PETERSBURG, Va. — The Virginia State Trojans will venture to Hampton, Virginia on Saturday to meet the Hampton Institute Pirates in the third CIAA encounter for the Trojans this year.

The Trojans may be looking for somewhat of a breather against the Pirates after three back to back battles with outside competition. The Trojans in outside competition have played .500 ball defeating Delaware State and North Carolina Central of the MEAC, return by Bruce Williams, Bison defensive captain, and by a rugged Bison line that held the Aggies four times on as many plays inside the Howard 4. The final Bison score resulted when Gregory Butler flashed 43 yards to score on a return Aggie punt. Gamble converted for the 43-7 final with 0:36 second remaining.

Howard is one of the two remaining unbeaten teams in black college football, leading the nation with 7-0 record of wins losses ties. The route marked the first any MEAC or CIAA team has scored as many as 40 points on an A and T eleven in 28 years dating back to a 45-0 bow to North Carolina Central in 1945 scoring by quarters Howard 7 15 7 14 143 A and T 0 0 0 7. The victors led in yards rushing 209 to 43 in passing 111 to 110 in first downs 17 to 12 and in total yards 320 to 123. Howard leads the MEAC in ten departments and The Bisons 4-0-0 is a game better than North Carolina Central 3-0-0 within the conference.
