

MORT talk

THROWS RIGHT HOOK — Former heavy weight champion Muhammad Ali throws a right hook against the head of Dutch Champion Rudi Lubbers 10/20 in the 11th round of the 12-round fight which Ali won by unanimous decision. Ali next meets American Joe Frazier in New York on January 28th.

Howard U. Bisons Adds Eighth Consecutive Win

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Establishing three all-time team records and subjecting an ancient foe to the series' most lopsided shutout defeat in 47 seasons, the Howard University Bison football team pinned a 51-0 defeat on Hampton Institute here before a partisan 8,000 fans on Saturday afternoon.

A surprisingly tenacious Hampton eleven limited the unbeaten Bison team to a 10-0 lead during a hard fought first half, but coach Ed Wyche's streaking winners exploded for three touchdowns in each of the last two quarters.

Led by Warren Craddock, whose 19 carries for 188 yards set a new one game rushing mark for the Howard attack, the victors earned a first quarter touchdown on a 61-yard drive. Freshman Willie Gamble converted, then added a 25-yard placement in the second quarter for a 10-0 advantage.

Hampton's Pirate offense threatened to make trouble in the early minutes of the third period, especially while quarterback Dwight Joyner began connecting with split-end Bobby Brown for 10 and 15-yard passes. Half the period had been used by a Hampton attack that notched four consecutive first downs before giving up the ball to Howard's 31 yard line.

From that point, however, the hard-charging Craddock ripped Hampton's defense, time and again, before hammering for a score from two yards out. Gamble converted for a 17-0 lead. A minute later, freshman defensive back Sherril Battle, substituting for Gregory Butler, caught a Hampton punt and sped 65 yards to a third Howard touchdown. Gamble's placement was blocked as Howard led, 23-0. Thirteen seconds later, Maurice Pressley intercepted a Hampton pass and ran 32 yards to a touchdown. Gamble converted and Howard had a 30-0 lead.

With Leon Jenkins, Damon Marshall and Craddock alternating, Howard set up another field goal drive that was capped by Craddock's burning 20 yard scoring burst through the middle. Gamble hiked the score to a 37-0 level.

Two minutes later, corner back Hayward Corley intercepted his sixth pass of the year and ran 18 yards to score. Gamble hiked the Bison advantage with a perfect placement, 44-0 with 6:33 minutes remaining.

At this point, coach Wyche gave Michael Banks, his record-breaking freshman quarterback a rest. Darryl Bridges took over and hit offensive captain Willie Harrell with a 28 yard pass that accounted for the last touchdown of the game. Gamble added the conversion and Howard not only went ahead in the 60-year series with Hampton, 30-29-1, but exceeded the most overwhelming victory over the Pirates (38-0 in 1910) by 13 points. Morgan State is the next Bison foe—the two teams will tangle at RFK Stadium on Saturday, Nov. 3.

A heroic second period stand by Hampton, inside her 3 yard line, restricted Howard from achieving a nine-touchdown triumph.

SCORE BY PERIODS:
HAMPTON 0 0 0 0
HOWARD 7 3 29 21 51

First Downs: HU 20, Hampton 7; rushing: HU 46-326, Hampton 40-109; passing: HU 10-of-21 for 135 yards, Hampton 5-of-13 for 42; total yards—HU, 461, Hampton, 151. Interceptions—HU-3, Hampton 1.

Livingstone Bears Romp Over St. Paul's College, in Homecoming

SALISBURY — Livingstone College's Fighting Bears played brilliant football in the first half of their homecoming game Saturday afternoon and dazzled a partisan capacity crowd at Alumni Stadium by romping over St. Paul's College of Lawrenceville, Va., 50-8.

"It was a great team victory," stated Livingstone coach Baxter Holman. His team sailed to its fifth victory of the season, including its third win against one loss in the CIAA standings. The Bears are 5-1-1 overall. St. Paul's remained winless.

All 64 players on the Livingstone squad, including its seven seniors, had a hand in the big win. Holman used two offensive and two defensive units in the contest to give each man equal rest.

Sophomore Kenney Sifford, a well known back from East Rowan, was a standout on the second offensive unit. He was the second leading ground gainer for his team with 49 yards in 10 carries. He also had a seven-yard touchdown run.

Another sophomore, William Scales, led the winners with 67 yards in nine carries. Teammate Calvin Eley collected 47 yards in six carries, while Livingstone's Raymond Scott got 46 in three rushing attempts.

Eleven different backs carried the ball for Livingstone and accounted for 266 total yards in 44 carries. They averaged over six yards per rush.

Ten different players were involved in scoring points for the hosts. Flanker Mike Williams led that category with 12. He had a 33-yard touchdown run for the Bears' first score and he caught a five-yard TD pass from quarterback Randy Nichols later in the game.

Four Livingstone quarterbacks, saw action. They completed five out of 11 passes for 53 yards. Livingstone had three tosses intercepted.

The Livingstone defense continued to play terrifically. It allowed St. Paul's just 52 yards rushing, while yielding 56 yards in the air. The Bears' defense has given up 70 points in seven games.

The hosts pounced on three Tiger fumbles and snagged four interceptions. Tom Landy, Bernard Hill and Cecil Corpening each recovered a fumble for the winners. Hill, Prim May, Nigel Alston and Ronald McCleave each got an interception.

The hosts allowed just four first downs, including two in each half, while forcing the visitors to punt the ball away six times. Livingstone made 17 first downs and punted twice.

The winners jumped to a quick 6-0 lead in the first quarter when Williams got his 33-yard touchdown run. Andrew Cooney's kick was wide with 10:29 showing on the clock.

The Bears took over again after four plays and promptly with 6:45 left in the quarter, Nichols passed seven yards to Williams, who was in the endzone. He then threw a two-point conversion pass to end Reginald Childers, increasing the Bears' lead to 14-0.

It took the winners little time to score in the second period. With 10:07 remaining, quarterback Garcia Gilmore threw a 26-yard TD pass to Roger Jackson. Nichols' conversion pass failed and the score was 20-0.

Eight yards later Livingstone notched seven more points. The Bears recovered a St. Paul's fumble on the Tigers 14 and moved the ball into the endzone with a one-yard run by James Lewis. Cooney's kick was good with 5:52 to go in the first half and it was a 27-0 game.

In four plays after that the hosts increased their lead when Sifford raced seven yards for a touchdown. The conversion pass failed, making the score 33-0. That touchdown was set up by Hill's fumble recovery.

Livingstone still wasn't finished scoring points. Hill got his interception on the St. Paul's 24 yard line, giving the hosts the ball. Four plays later Raymond Scott scooted 40 yards for six points with 1:38 on the clock. His kick was good, increasing the winners' advantage to 40-0 at halftime.

The losers' only touchdown was made in the third quarter. With 12:24 to go, Marvin Reese ran three yards for paydirt. His conversion made the score 40-8.

Livingstone's last touchdown came with nine minutes left in the third period. Nichols threw a seven-yard TD pass to Childers and Cooney made the kick,

OKLAHOMA VS COLORADO — Oklahoma halfback Joe Washington leaps through hole behind blocking of end Wayne Hoffman (81) for nine yards and a first down in third quarter. Washington gained 118 yards in 18 carries as OU defeated Colorado 34-7.

South Carolina State Upsets N.C.'s Homecoming

A Homecoming crowd of 14,000, decked out in the latest attire of the fashion world, saw the home standing North Carolina Central University Eagles bow to S.C. State, 24-3. The Bulldogs of S.C. State took advantage of three NCCU turnovers and a 57-yard kickoff return to spoil the Eagles' Homecoming festivities.

Central's Walter Hunter fumbled the opening kickoff and William Thompson recovered for S.C. at the NCCU 30. After three straight off-side penalties against Central, the Bulldogs' Allen Smith ramled in from the 15 for the first S.C. score, with 14:08 left in the first quarter. Leroy Mason added the extra point.

The S.C. defense scored the next touchdown with 13:35 remaining in the second pushing the score to 47-8. The Bears' rounded out the scoring when Cooney booted a 38-yard field goal on the last play of the game.

quarter. S.C. State's Ernie Edmonds blocked a Central punt and covered the loose ball in the end zone for a touchdown. Mason booted the PAT. At this point the score stood S.C. 14, NCCU 0.

Central's only score came late in the second quarter on a 28-yard field goal by Tyrone Boykins. The score came after a 31-yard pass completion from quarterback Clifton Herring to Roderick Hodges. The score stood 14-3, S.C. State.

S.C. answered after Leonard Duncan returned Central's kickoff 57-yards. With the ball on Central's 32-yard line, S.C. State's quarterback Benjamin Samuels led the Bulldogs down to the one, where he went over for the score. Mason kicked the extra point. The score at the half was 21-3, S.C. State.

A fired up NCCU band and a string of beautiful homecoming queens supplied the excitement that the Eagles' offense lacked during the afternoon. Central's offense was plagued by numerous turnovers and when the Eagles could mount a drive the S.C. defense mustered the strength to halt them.

Central failed to capitalize on an early third period fumble recovery by Ronald McNeil. Following the recovery Central marched down to the S.C. State 7-yard line, but had to turn the ball over on downs. A touchdown at this point would have put the Eagles back into the ball game.

The Bulldogs added three more points on a 26-yard field goal by Leroy Mason with 1:40 remaining in the third quarter. The field goal followed an interception by S.C. State's Leonard Duncan. After three periods S.C. led 24-3.

At this point the homecoming fans were headed toward the exits. Neither team could score in the final stanza. The loss left Central in second place in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference, trailing Howard by one full game. S.C. (Continued on Page 7B)

Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference Football Round-up For Oct. 29

The Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC) football race heads into the final three weeks of action and things have really become a jumble in the seven-team conference.

Howard University continues to lead the league race with a perfect 4-0 league slate and an 8-0 mark overall but the race has become a four team battle which may go down to the final week of the campaign.

The Bisons increased their record to 8-0 with a 51-0 shellacking over Hampton Institute in Washington in the only non-conference game in the league Saturday.

South Carolina State made the conference race even tighter by spoiling the North Carolina Central homecoming activities with a 24-3 victory over the Eagles in Durham. Morgan State stayed very much in the conference race with a 16-10 win over North Carolina A & T in Baltimore. Maryland-Eastern Shore nipped Delaware State by the score of 20-14 in Princess Anne, Maryland.

Howard exploded for 41 points in the second half and went on to completely outclass Hampton of the CIAA. Warren Craddock was the offensive star for Howard with 198 yards in 19 carries and three touchdowns. Defensively, linebacker Maurice Pressley was the standout for the Bisons highlighted by a 32-yard return of an intercepted pass for a TD.

South Carolina State took advantage of several North Carolina Central in the first half enroute to its fourth straight win. The Bulldogs recovered a North Carolina Central fumble on the opening kickoff and went to score on a 15-yard run by Allen Smith. The Palmetto State eleven came back to recover a blocked punt in the endzone by William Thompson for another TD and turned a 66 yard kickoff return into a six pointer for a 21-3 lead at half-time lead.

Running back Robert Hammond set a school rushing record by running for 199 yards and two touchdowns as Morgan State held on for its victory over North Carolina A & T which is winless in conference play. The victory for the Bears kept their hopes alive for winning the league championship which they were picked to win in the pre-season poll of the coaches.

Maryland-Eastern Shore built up a 20-0 lead after three quarters and held off a strong rally by Delaware State in the final stanza. Maryland-E.S. scored in the first quarter on a one-yard run by Harold Wood and came back with two third period touchdowns on passes from Franke Gregg for a 20-0 lead at the end of the period.

Delaware State came back in the fourth period to score on a four-yard run by John Brown and a six-yard pass from Allen Rose to Aaron Davis but was unable to muster another TD in the late stages.

Two conference games and three non-conference games are on tap for this week in the MEAC. The big conference game this week will be played in Washington, D.C. at RFK Stadium where Howard will play host to Morgan State at 1:30.

South Carolina State will

DENVERROCKET — Coach Alex Hannum (left) and San Diego Conquistadors Coach Wilt Chamberlain (right) chat prior to start of San Diego-Denver ABA game here. Chamberlain jumped from the NBA Los Angeles Lakers to the ABA San Diego team recently and is unable to play as a player for the team. Hannum was Chamberlain's first coach.

Tennessee State Smashes FAMU Rattlers 45-0

NASHVILLE, Tenn. — Held scoreless throughout the first period, the Big Blue Tigers of Tennessee State University atoned for their slow start here last Saturday night against the Florida A & M Rattlers by put its four-game winning streak on the line against Maryland-Eastern Shore in Princess Anne, Maryland in a 2 o'clock contest.

Delaware State plays the first of three non-league games this week on Friday night in Hempstead, N. Y. against Hofstra. Gametime is set for 8 p.m.

North Carolina Central travels to Charlotte Saturday afternoon to meet Johnson C. Smith. The homecoming game for Johnson C. Smith will get started at 1:30.

A & T journeys to Grambling, La. to meet the powerful Grambling Tigers of the SWAC. This game is slated to start at 2 o'clock.

striking for a touchdown on the first play of the second quarter when Ken Pettiford passes to tight end James Kelley from 13 yards out to fashion the pattern for a 45-0 win.

With a 7-0 lead after James Matthews' first of six PAT's for the evening, the Big Blue had enough for the win. But the Tigers were taking no chances after they had marched 65 yards to take the lead. Moments later, Eddie Gatewood intercepted a Kenny Holt pass at the FAMU 30. Two plays later Pettiford, who passes for four six-pointers during the evening, tossed a 10 yard scoring strike to wide receiver John Holland. Once more the reliable Matthew's came through with a PAT.

The Tigers turned the game into a rout in the third period when they poured in 28 points. The four TD's in that period came on a 28 yard pass from Pettiford to flanker Larry Dorsey, a six-yard run by Lawrence Barnes, a two-yard run by Nathaniel Jackson and a 41 yard bomb from the Tiger quarterback to Holland. The Big Blue's final points came on a 29 yard field goal in the fourth with 5:08 left in the game.

As has been the case all season, the Tiger defense was outstanding with Ed Jones, Waymond Bryant, Cleece Elam, Eddie Gatewood, and quartet of new starters at the defensive backs showing the way. The Tigers showed 359 yards in total offense—183 rushing and 176 passing, while the Rattlers came on with 197-137 rushing and 60 passing.

The No. 2 ranked Tigers are now 6-0 on the season, and the Rattlers are 2 and 3.

Rogers C.B. Morton, Interior Secretary, on rationing heating oil: "This program will in no way generate a greater supply."

RE-ELECT
HAWKINS
MAYOR OF DURHAM

Mayor Hawkins Has Demonstrated His Concern For All Of Durham's Citizens' By Affirmative Action -- Not Just Talk.

James R. Hawkins

VOTE FOR HAWKINS
NOVEMBER 6th

INVER HOUSE

SCOTCH

Soft as a Kiss

1/2 Gal. 1115

4/5 Qt. 485

Also available in Tents