Grambling Tigers Humiliate A&T Aggies 63 to 7

GRAMBLING, LA. — During the course of last Saturday afternoon's A&T-Grambling game, a young giant walked past the press box hawking soft drinks.

"There goes one of the best football players on campus," said Grambling publicist Collie Nicholson. "He goes about 6-8 and 285, but he's ineligible this semester."

Nobody could find it in his heart to sympathize with Nicholson. It was already obvious that there were more like the giant where he came from, because the Tigers were well on their way to a 62-6 rout of the Aggies.

How bad was it?

Well, Grambling led 7-0 after less than two minutes, 14-0 after four minutes, 21-0 after six minutes and 28-0 at the end of the first quarter.

The Tigers turned loose 17 different runners for 333 yards rushing. They also mustered 184 yards passing even though they seldom put the ball into the air after the opening minutes.

The score might have been worse had Grambling not been penalized 18 times for 232 yards by a group of officials who seemed charitable to the hopelessness of A&T's cause.

"But more than anything else, this proved that we have to get more quality football players if we are to lift our program to Grambling's caliber."

Howell said he felt no embarrassment, no humiliation, even though it was by far his worst defeat in six years as A&T's head coach. Only once before in recent history had the Aggies been beaten so badly, 63-6 by Florida A & M in 1967.

"We gave up the bomb at the beginning, and it just snowballed until it was out of control."

When asked if he felt the score had been run beyond reason, Howell replied: "It was, but I don't want to elaborate."

Robinson pointed out that he utilized 65 different players, by several key players stayed in the lineup most of the game, especially defenders.

Mike Morgan Is Defensive Player of Week

Mike Morgan of Morgan State College and Leonard Duncan of South Carolina State College have been named defensive players of the week in the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference (MEAC).

Morgan, a 6-4, 240-pound defensive tackle for the Bears, was named defensive lineman of the week in the seven-team conference for his play against North Carolina A & T while Duncan was cited as defensive back of the week for this outstanding play against North Carolina Central.

Morgan, a Cleveland, Ohio native, was credited with 12 unassisted tackles, five assisted tackles, sacked the quarterback three times and trapped the quarterback in the endzone for a safety to lead Morgan State to a 16-10 win over A & T recently.

Duncan returned a kickoff 66 yards and a pass interception 66 yards to set up a touchdown and a field goal in

Smith Bulls Come From Behind to Dump N. C. Central U. Eagles

CHARLOTTE — Johnson C. Smith scored two second half touchdowns and came from behind to whip N. C. Central 15-7 Saturday in the Golden Bulls Homecoming game.

The loss left the Eagles with a 5-4 record.

The homecoming crowd of 15,000 saw the Central team put its only score on the board on the opening series when fullback James Smith bolted over from two yards out with 10:54 remaining.

Tyrone Boykins kicked the point-after conversion and the Eagles took a 7-0 lead, a margin that held up through the intermission.

After Central scored, the first half remained scoreless. The Eagles managed only one first down while allowing J. C. Smith 10. The Bulls picked up 166 yards through the air and 37 rushing while holding the visitors to only one pass completion for four yards. NCCU gained 29 yards on the ground.

In the second half the Golden Bulls rallied to score both touchdowns, compliments of an interception and a short punt by the Eagles.

Wiley Corley, a 225-pound defensive tackle for Smith, provided the spark for the first score when he intercepted a Clifton Herring pass at the Smith 37.

After picking off the errant pass, Smith scored 12 plays, and 58 yards, later with the aid of two 15-yard penalties. Alex

Garner went in from two yards out for the touchdown with 6:07 left in the third quarter.

Central regained some of its momentum in the fourth period, moving into Smith territory twice, but were denied any penetration further than the 27 due to penalties.

Smith failed to score on the next possession, but a James Watis' punt forced Central deep into its own territory.

Central was forced to punt and Smith got possession at the NCCU 37.

Then with 5:15 left in the game, Mike Gibson scored on an 11-yard run and a two-point conversion put the Bulls ahead 15-7.

The touchdown came after an eight-play drive aided by two five-yard penalties against the Eagles.

Morgan State College Bears Stop Howard Bison Unbeaten Trek

Morgan State continued its winning ways over Howard by knocking the Bison from the ranks of the unbeaten and as a result, the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference football championship race has turned into a "if-and-but" race.

The Bears whipped Howard, 27-7 Saturday afternoon before a crowd of better than 25,000 at RFK Stadium in Washington. The victory for Morgan was its 21st straight over Howard and the victory for the Baltimore eleven put the championship race in the MEAC up for grabs.

The victory for Morgan was only one of five games played by conference teams this past weekend in the MEAC. South Carolina State won its fifth straight game by turning back Maryland-Eastern Shore, 30-7 in Princess Anne, Maryland in the only other conference test involving MEAC teams.

In non-conference action Saturday, Johnson C. Smith came from behind in the second half to defeat North Carolina Central, 15-8 in Charlotte. Grambling pulled out all stops in a non-league test in Grambling, La. and completely outclassed North Carolina A & T to the tune of 62-6.

Delaware State suffered its ninth straight loss of the season Friday night, losing to Hofstra by the score of 26-14.

Howard went into its last home of the season with a perfect 4-0 league mark and a 8-0 overall mark. But Morgan State, feeling the pressure of beating Howard to still have an outside chance of winning the regular season title which coaches in the league picked the Bears to win in pre-season predictions, scored three touchdowns in a period of less than six minutes in the second quarter and took a 21-0 lead before Howard was able to get itself together.

Morgan scored with the aid of a pass interception, a block punt and a high fourth down snap on a punting situation for a 21-0 lead midway the first half. Howard finally scored on an 11 yard scamper by quarterback Michael Banks for a 21-7 halftime lead.

The Bison were not able to get their offense going in the second half as Morgan played stingy defense in addition to scoring a third period touchdown.

South Carolina State brighten its chances for the MEAC title with its 30-7 win over Maryland-Eastern Shore. UMES scored first on a one-yard sneak by quarterback Charles Boston but South Carolina State came back with 17 points in the second quarter on the running and passing of quarterback Benjamin Samuels. Samuels scored two TDs himself and then passed 43 yards to Darius McCarthy for another score.

North Carolina A & T suffered its fourth setback in a row at Grambling. Grambling rebounded from its defeat at the hands of Texas Southern two weeks ago with the shellacking over A & T.

Hofstra scored three touchdowns in the first quarter to take a 21-0 halftime lead but Delaware State stormed back to score two six-pointers in the third period to narrow the margin to 21-14 after three quarters of play. Hofstra added a field goal and a safety in the fourth stanza while holding Delaware State scoreless for the victory.

The big game in the conference this week will find Howard playing North Carolina Central in Durham in an 8 o'clock contest. The outcome of this game could decide the conference champion and by the same token, the result could make the championship do down to the final week of the season.

North Carolina A & T will play Delaware State in Dover, Delaware in a 1:30 afternoon contest in a battle of the two teams yet to win a league game. Maryland-Eastern Shore completes its season at home against Federal City at 2 o'clock. South Carolina State celebrates its homecoming Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. against Alabama A & M. Morgan State is idle this week, already having completed its conference worksheet. The Bears have a game at home next week against Virginia State.

RESULTS:

Friday, November 2 — Saturday, November 3: Morgan State 27, Howard 7; South Carolina State 30, Maryland-Eastern Shore 7; Johnson C. Smith 15, North Carolina Central 7; Grambling 62, North Carolina A & T 6.

SCHEDULE FOR SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10.

Howard at North Carolina Central at 8:00, A & T at Delaware State at 1:30;
