VETS QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

Q—I am a recently discharged veteran with a service connected disability, who'd like to attend college under the Veterans Administration's vocational rehabilitation program. What benefits would I receive? (P.S. I have a wife and child).

A—If you attend full time, you will receive your tuition, fees, books and supplies, plus $248 monthly.

Q—Is there a limit on how much I can pay for a home purchased with a loan guaranteed by the Veterans Administration?

A—No, but there is a limit on the amount of guaranty the agency can issue—60 percent, up to a maximum $12,500. Also, the loan cannot exceed VA's appraised value of the property.

Q—Do Veterans Administration hospitals and members of the committee are: Mesdames Christine Ingram, Chairman; L. Rose, H. Mimms, H. Price, M. Taylor and L. Wall. A fellowship hour will follow the evening service.

Rev. N. P. Brodie serves as pastor.

clinics take care of reservists injured reporting to, or returning from military training?

Q—I draw compensation from the Veterans Administration for a service connected disability. If I get a job, will it affect my compensation?

A—Not unless your VA rating is based on unemployment and you are rated 100% disabled.

Q—Is my deceased husband, a World War II veteran, eligible for a headstone?

A—Yes, headstones are available for any deceased veteran whose last period of military service was terminated honorably. Suggest you apply to the Veterans Administration, since this program was transferred from the Army Sept. 1, 1973.

Q—My brother was blinded during the Vietnam War, and can't seem to get interested in living again. What is the Veterans Administration doing about young men like him?

A—VA recently entered into an agreement with the Blinded Veterans Association to augment agency services to the blind. This is in addition to other agency benefits such as compensation for service connected blindness, guide dogs and electronic and mechanical aids, their repair and replacement.
