

New UNICEF Card Designed By Black Woman

1973 UNICEF GREETING CARD — Mother and Child; Contributed to UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund, by Elizabeth Catlett of Mexico.

Card sales enable UNICEF to improve the health, nutrition, education and social welfare of millions of children through UNICEF-aided programmes in 111 developing countries determined to build better, more extensive services for their children.

In this year's collection of UNICEF Greeting Cards, probably the single design which most graphically symbolizes the objectives of the United Nations Children's Fund is the poignant "Mother and Child" by distinguished American-born black artist Elizabeth Catlett, now head of the Sculpture Dept. of the University of Mexico's Fine Arts School.

The strikingly simple black-and-white lithograph of a loving mother cradling her infant child is also representative of Miss Catlett's humanitarian and artistic concern for and identity with the lives and aspirations of the people of the Black and Third Worlds, particularly the women.

A native of Washington, D. C., who graduated from Howard University and earned a Master's in Fine Arts at Iowa University where she studied with Grant Wood, Betty Catlett first received public recognition by winning first prize for sculpture at the 1940

American Negro Exposition in Chicago. Recipient of a Guggenheim Fellowship in 1946, she traveled to Mexico for study and work. She is married to Mexican artist Francisco Mora and is now a citizen of that country. Recent exhibitions of her sculptures and lithographs in this country have included one-man shows at the Atlanta Center for Black Art, the Studio Museum in Harlem, and Howard University.

Proceeds of the sale of "Mother and Child," as of all UNICEF Cards, will help the United Nations Children's Fund to broaden its child care work in Africa, Asia, Latin America, and the Middle East. They are available at $2 for a box of 12 without any message or imprint with the word Peace in the five official United Nations languages - from your local UNICEF Card representative or direct from the U. S. Committee for UNICEF, P. O. Box 5050, Grand Central Station, New York City 10017.

group and was impressed by the unique talents of our youth today.

From the recital the group was taken to the lovely and spacious home of Dr. and Mrs. Swann on Limit Street in the suburbs where they were entertained until time to leave for the bus station at 9:00 p.m. During the stay at the Swann's residence, Mrs. Swann showed pictures and gave a resume of their travel to the Holy Land and Africa last December.

The whole trip was enjoyed by all involved. The hosts, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Swann and church members really rolled out the red carpet for us from the time we reached Baltimore until the time we left for home. This trip will never be forgotten.

We arrived in Greensboro Monday morning at 5:30, tired, but happy to have had such a glorious experience. Those persons on the trip were Mesdames Aleece Faulkner, Lydia Quick, trip sponsors; Nettie Thompson, Ethel Ruffin, Essie Hudson, Irene Taylor, Emma Gunthrop, Theora Gilmer, Patsy McDonald and son, Stevie, Levada Holt, Odessa Harris, Marion Watson and Catherine Gill.

A Weekend In Baltimore, Md. Visiting Waters AME Church

A group of Greensboro citizens left the city by Greyhound bus Saturday, November 10, at 1:55 a.m. for a weekend in Baltimore, Maryland to visit with the Reverend Dr. Melvin Chester Swann, Sr., and Mrs. Swann, and to attend service at Waters AME Church Sunday morning, November 12, at 11:00 a.m. The group arrived in Baltimore at 9:05 Saturday morning, and were met by the Rev. Dr. Swann and four members of his church who took the group to the Sheraton Inn where they were to stay while in the city, registrations having been made by Rev. Swann before their arrival. After checking in at the Inn, Rev. Dr. Swann gave the group the itinerary he had planned for their two-day stay:

Breakfast in the beautiful dining room of the Sheraton Inn, and dinner at Waters AME Church, 417 N. Disquisition Street at 4:00 p.m. At the church we were ushered into the Lounge where each member of the group was given a beautiful purple-throated orchid corsage which was pinned by the hostesses. Then they were given a tour of the spacious and beautiful three-story edifice. Following the tour of the church, we were then ushered into the church dining room for a very palatable dinner prepared by a group of women of the church. The meal consisted of fried chicken in quarters, collard greens, candied yams, cornbread, coffee, and apple pie, -real soul food. The group cleaned their plates. After visiting with the church group and the minister, we went back to the Inn to rest and prepare for the Sunday activities. Some, however, visited friends and relatives in Baltimore.

On Sunday morning we had breakfast at the Inn at 9:30. At 10:45 we were heading for Waters AME Church, just four blocks away, where we attended the morning worship service and listened to a wonderful sermon delivered by Rev. Dr. Swann. He used for a subject, "Am I My Brother's Keeper?" a timely and well received message. Music was furnished by the Junior, Youth, Gospel and Senior Choirs. The service was very impressive. Each member wore the corsage she received the evening before.

Also during the morning worship service each visitor was given an autographed booklet entitled "Jesus" by Rev. Dr. Swann, the minister, who said, "I know of no better gift to give you than to give you Jesus."

The Youth Choir, composed of youth with trained voices, was really something to listen to.

Following the morning worship service we were invited to dinner by the Faithful Workers-South Carolina Club-this being their day to serve dinner at the church. The delicious meal consisted of Turkey, dressing, gravy, candied yams, collard greens, kraut, cranberry sauce, hot rolls and butter, coffee, cake and pie. The group thoroughly enjoyed this.

After dinner the guest went back to the Lounge where they were greeted by other members of the church during the afternoon.

At 3:45 p.m. the group went to the First Baptist Church-525 N. Carolina Street where they were to attend a recital at 4:00 p.m. presented by the Boosters Club, Floral Circle and Senior Citizens of First Baptist Church-The recital-The Unique Chorale of Waters AME Church- Mrs. Bertha B. Haskins, Directress, with Walter Fisher, organist, and Lemuel Hynson, Pianist, was thoroughly enjoyed by the

Ambassador of Nigeria is Shaw Univ. Visitor

Shaw University had a most distinguished guest in attendance at its Annual Founder's Day Convocation, Ambassador John Mamman Garba of Nigeria, special envoy for the President of Nigeria, General Yakubu Gowon.

Mr. Garba accepted an honorary Doctor's degree for President Gowon. The Ambassador spoke of the day when all African students would return to their homeland and help develop and build it.

Ambassador Garba was welcomed at the airport by President J. Archie Hargraves, Thomas Kee, Vice President for University Relations; Phillip Mason, Vice President for Institutional Advancement and several African students. Mayor Thomas Bradshaw of Raleigh presented Ambassador Garba with the key to the city and stated that the City of Raleigh was delighted to have him visit the diamond of the south.
