MRS. PAULINE HART

It was an ideal evening for a party, especially ideal for the Senior Missionaries of Union Baptist Church. The skies were blue and studded with well-defined stars; the temperature was a wee-bit nippy, enough nippiness to encourage jauntiness into one's footsteps. There fore the little, old ladies toddled along carrying covered-dishes, lovingly prepared with spices and everything nice to delight the plates of the most discriminating taste buds.

The home of Mr. & Mrs. M.C. Hart of Gray Avenue was Christmas headquarters for this year's Yuletide Party for active and inactive members—sick and shut-ins.

The spacious, well-appointed dining room and living rooms was a winter, wonderland of beauty and informal seating arrangements so that everyone could see and hear all that was going on. Beautifully decorated tables, laden with colorful, mouth-watering foods: golden brown fried chicken, chopped greens with ham, macaroni and cheese, potato salad, chicken'n dumplings, cole-slaw, socatash, cold sliced pork with thin brown skin, beef stew, green peas desserts: potato pies—custard style with coconut, and plain butter rich pies; pound cake, layer cake; coffee, fruit-punch; was in easy reach of everyone.

A brief, but highly inspirational devotion preceded the party. The partymakers sang hymns and expressed thanks and praises to God for his wondrous blessings, and expressed hopes for strength and a willingness to continue in the services of the Master and His friends. A prayer of hope and thanksgiving was offered by deacon, Nilas Thompson, Mt. Vernon Church. "Writing God a Check" was the topic of discussion, Miss Annie M. Dunigan, co-hostess, adroitly guided the discussion into a channel of aweinspiring interest in the challenging, enigmatic subject.

The passing of gifts, naturally, was the highlight of the evening; and everyone received a gift from under the lavishly decorated tree. Even those not present were remembered with a gift and a Christmas dinner.

Thank-yous were extended to the charming hostess by: Miss

A CHRISTMAS MESSAGE
Mrs. Alene Davis

Kind Christmas come but once a year,
And with it brings right hearty cheer,
For years ago, upon this morn
Our Saviour as a child was born.

To shepard, in those days of old,
A heav'nly band the glad news told,
In Bethlehem is born this day
He who will was all sin away.

This new born babe to children bring,
A message from the King of Kings,
Peace and Good will, Goodwill and peace,
And on this earth my love increase

So in the future as in the past,
It will be hile the world shall last
That Christmas coming once a year
Brings Peace and Love, and right good cheer!
