

The Veterans Administration through its 170 hospitals plays an important role each year in providing training for about half the nation's more than 9,000 new physicians.

MARY BOHANON

by Mary Bohanon

"Move with seasons. Never let winter catch up with you." This axiom often makes one wonder how many winters have caught up with him. He begins to recall duties unperformed, promises unkept, and because of his own negligence, ideas unexplored. He realizes for the first time that he has sown seeds of promise in the spring only to let the summer suns stunt their growth while he was preoccupied with material assets and passing pleasures. Trying desperately to reassemble his life, he omits himself by trying to become one with the group. Omitting himself in the swirl of trying to be liked, at the expense of polluting his own integrity, he commits the eighth cardinal sin. Swirl is the only word that comes to his inner mind, for he is being swung around, catapulted to his own faceless end. He has become a "wish I had done" person. He pitifully realizes "the moving finger writes and having writ moves on..."

REFLECTIONS

FROM NCCU
By Mary Bohanon

Clouds are spotted about, revealing dimension.
Glittering starfish circle around a silvery Queen.
The artist is enraptured by his creation,
Only he can judge its beauty.

THE UNSHEATHED

In his youth he lived a carefree life,
Living day by day.
Then came the grey hued dusk of his life
Yet he made no preparations.
Sunset found him unsheltered.
Gloria Harris

PRAISE

I will praise Thee, O God
from the depths of my heart,
For there is no other like Thee.
I will praise Thee, O God
from my rising to my lying down
For there is no greater friend than Thou.
Thou abides with me in times of uncertainties and weaknesses.
Thou gives me comfort in the times of distress
and desires for me the best.
How can I not love Thee?
Thou made and shaped me.
Thou gave me life.
Thou kept me day by day.
I will praise Thee, O God
from the depths of my soul.

I will praise Thee.
Katie J. Lawson

NEMESIS

Exhausted,
Mercy lies
Deep in slumber's oblivion,
While I stand here
Chained by the irons of my guilt
Before the impersonal
Face of justice.
My deed done,
Unchangeable,
Irreversible,
Forever stamped in time.
Here in the awesome shadows
Of my looming nemesis
I tremble...

UNSAFE TOYS

Last year, 132,000 toy-related injuries were serious enough to require hospital treatment. In hopes more children will have a safe Christmas this year, more than 1,500 unsafe toys already have been banned from the market by the Consumer Product Safety Commission. Unfortunately, not all these toys have been removed from store shelves, so shoppers will still do well to check safety features of toys before buying.

Nearly 26 million of America's more than 29 million living veterans served during a period the country was involved in war, according to the Veterans Administration.
