NCCU Federal And Private Grants Reflect Drop In Non-State Support

John H. Lucas, Hillside principal, assumes the NCAE presidency.

John Lucas, Hillside Principal Assumes Duties As NCAE Pres.

John H. Lucas, who assumes the NCAE presidency Friday night, April 5, is a native of Rocky Mount. He has been principal of Hillside Senior High in Durham since 1962. He served this past year as NCAE vice president/president-elect.

The North Carolina Association of Educators (NCAE) was formed in 1970 when the former black and white associations merged. NCAE has an all-time high total membership of 58,048 this year.

NCAE is organized into 191 local units in 15 districts. Policy is set by the Representative Assembly made up of delegates to the annual state conventions. Policy is implemented by the board of directors and the NCAE staff.

A. S. Webb Is Reappointed To The Commission of Correction

Dr. Larnie G. Horton, Special Assistant to the Governors for Minority Affairs, announced that Governor Jim Holshouser has reappointed one Black and named two others to serve on State Boards and Commissions.

Horton said that the Governor has reappointed A.S. Webb to the Commission of Correction, and made two new appointments, Dock Brown of Halifax, North Carolina and Ms. Tommie Young of Durham.

Webb is Executive Vice President and Secretary of the American Federal Savings and Loan Association of Greensboro, a position he has held since coming to this state from his native Greensboro, Alabama in 1959. He is a graduate of Tuskegee Institute High School in Tuskegee, Alabama, Hampton Institute in Hampton, Virginia, and completed studies at the Graduate School of Savings and Loan, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana. He is also former Chairman of the Greensboro Human Relations Commission.

Dr. Horton said that Dock Brown has been named to serve on the State Drug Advisory Council. The 44-year old Brown is Vice President of the Halifax County Chapter of the NAACP and the Board of Deacons, First Baptist Church, Roanoke Rapids. A Shaw (See HOLSHOUSER Page 7A)

The president is chairman of the board.

Serving as executive secretary is Dr. A.C. Dawson and E.B. Palmer, who is associate executive secretary.

Members include all levels of education public schools, community colleges and universities. They include all kinds of professional educators, teachers, principals, superintendents, professors, counselors, librarians, coaches, vocational teachers, supervisors and others.

Lucas is a graduate of Shaw University. He holds a master's degree from North Carolina Central University. He holds a certificate of advanced study in administration and supervision from New York University and has done further work at New York University and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Lucas is studying currently at Duke University.

Lucas has served as teacher, guidance director, basketball and football coach and administrative assistant during his career. He was principal of Orange Street Elementary School in Oxford in 1952. He later served as principal of Mary Potter High School in (See LUCAS Page 7A)

PLAYER OF YEAR

RALEIGH, N.C. — David Thompson, the Associated Press College Basketball Player of the Year, honed his skills by playing against the "big boys" at Gardner-Webb College in Bowling Springs, N.C., not far from his Shelby home.

Just as his team dethroned perennial champion UCLA in the NCAA semifinals, Thompson replaced the Bruins' Bill Walton as AP player of the year. Thompson received the vote of 128 of the nation's sports writers and sportscasters to 8 for the 6-foot-11 Walton. Nine other players each got one vote.

"I had to learn to jump high to shoot over them," said the two-time All-American, a mere 6-foot-4.

Shaw University Conference-Workshop Reported A Success

Chapter presidents of the National Alumni Association, along with interested alumni, of Shaw University departed Raleigh this past weekend elated over the success of the conference workshop project. The conference theme was "Higher Black Education, Especially as related to Shaw University." In addition to examining the current scene on the predominantly black college and university campus, attention was given to future directions of the more strict academic programs and those more directly related to the social and cultural aspects of the changing American way of life.

Mr. Israel Singleton, Washington, D.C., and First Vice President of the National Alumni Association, presided over the conference in a most exemplary manner. The luncheon address was delivered by Dr. Vernon Clark, president of the organization, on the conference theme. Response to the address was evidenced by a standing ovation. The afternoon session centered around various workshops that were chaired by well-known alumni of Shaw University. Chairman and the interest groups were John H. Lucas (Durham) Academics, M.M. Daniels, (Wilson) University Relations, Harold High (Raleigh) Fund Raising, Marjorie Scott (Raleigh) Student Affairs, Israel Singleton (Washington, D.C.) (See WORKSHOP Page 7A)

22 Grants Are Halted During Fiscal Year

North Carolina Central University had $2,822,298 in Federal and private grant funds to spend during the 1973-74 fiscal year, according to a report from George T. Thoren, vice chancellor for financial affairs. The total dropped from a 1972-73 high of $3,968,078.

The 1973-74 figure is higher than the figure for any previous year, other than 1972-73, NCCU records show.

Records show that the university received 11 new grants during the fiscal year, totaling $148,416. Nine grants were increased for the year, adding another $93,013. But 22 grants were canceled, not renewed or otherwise lost, with a value of $439,924 and 18 grants were reduced in value, causing a loss of $950,345.

Not recorded in the annual report are capital gifts to the university, including those to the Faculty Endowment Fund, and gifts made to the North Carolina Central University Foundation.

Scholarship grant, made directly to students are not recorded, and the Federal Guaranteed Student Loan program is not reflected in the figures.

Kennedy Reports 75th Year Progress Despite Adversities

In the president's report to the policyowners of the NORTH CAROLINA MUTUAL Life Insurance Company at their Seventy-fifth Annual Meeting here at Mutual Plaza in Durham, W.J. Kennedy III, said "1973 has been a year of continued growth and achievement for our Company in spite of the development of traumatic economic and political factors on the national and international scenes."

"We have been faced with seemingly uncontrollable inflation, food shortages, housing problems and an energy crisis because of what, generously, may be termed gross ineptness on the part of the managers of the national economy."

"During 1973 NORTH CAROLINA MUTUAL, began the celebration of its 75th Anniversary year. The Company, founded on October 20, 1898, was incorporated by a special act of the North Carolina Legislature on February 28, 1899 and actually began doing business on April 1, 1899. We shall continue to celebrate these most significant anniversaries for a full twelve month period into October of 1974."

"Despite the adverse conditions developing in 1973, North Carolina Mutual continues to make progress. Income for the year on an actual basis totaled $42.7 million (A gain of $6.1 million or nearly 17% for the year.) 1973 year-end assets totaled $135.7 million. (An increase of $6.5 million.) The largest internally generated increase in the seventy-five year history of the Company. And, insurance in force increased to $1,730 (See KENNEDY Page 7A)

TLC Of A Foster Grandparent Is Of An Extra Special Quality

ATLANTA, Ga.—Two black hands excitedly tear open a scrawled envelope and take out a thank-you card, to "Grandma" from Timmie.

These were the same hands that had brushed back his matted blonde hair in the hospital and dried the tears in his soft blue eyes when he said, "It hurts."

Timmie is white "Grandma Starks," black but there could not have been a closer bond during Timmie's hospital stay had they been blood kin. There always is something extra special about the loving touch of a grandparent even a temporary one. And this warmth and love are the extra ingredients that make ACTION's Foster Grandparent Program in Atlanta so successful.

The Foster Grandparent Program (FGP) is made up of persons over 60 who make life a little brighter for children (See GRANDPARENTS 7A)

Honorary services were held recently for Alton Tuck, a native of Durham, for his loyal and dependable services as deacon, since 1922, chairman of the deacon board, since 1935. He was superintendent of the Sunday School for approximately 10 years, the 6 point system was installed under his administration. Mr. Tuck taught Sunday School for a number of years and was assistant teacher of the B.B. Rogers Bible Class.

Mr. Tuck is a retired American Railway Express Company worker. Having served 45 years and retiring in 1961. He and his wife Bettie reside at 803 Elizabeth Street, Durham.

Sigmus Sponsor Sickle Cell Anemia Drive

Members of Gamma Sigma Sigma Service Sorority of Durham College is having a drive to raise funds for the fight against Sickle Cell Anemia.

Saturday, March 30, a telethon was held in the college auditorium. The community's support was poor due to the late announcement of this project. Therefore, we are asking for your pledges throughout the month of April. We would like to thank (See SIGMAS Page 7A)

Lincoln Hosp. Accredited By Joint Comm.

Lincoln Hospital has been accredited by the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals (JCAH) according to Larry T. Sutt, Administrator.

This accreditation, which covers from 1974 to 1976, is the result of an on-site survey made by field representatives of the Joint Commission's Hospital Accreditation Program (HAP). Accreditation indicated that this facility has chosen to operate according to standards set by JCAH and that the facility has, in the main, met these standards.

The standards, published as the Accreditation Manual for Hospitals, set forth optimal achievable goals of excellence against which a facility can measure itself and be measured by the Joint Commission's survey.
