

HOLIDAY WHIRLS

Durhamites from various clubs, organizations and even individuals pitched in to help the less advantaged during the holiday season.

We certainly commend them for this generosity and hope that 1977 will be much better for many people.

In addition to taking on families or children listed for some type of help we also call attention to the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Chapter for the annual "Golden Agers Party". Many favorable comments have been heard regarding this activity. The local chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority also spread much happiness and joy to the senior citizens in the Pine Knoll Rest Home and Ellison's Nursing home. Such sharing is what the holiday season is all about.

Mrs. L. M. Harris, Umstead Street, was the hostess for a Christmas breakfast. Special guests included Miss Jeanette Alston, Freedom Train Guide, and Mrs. Hazel Harvey, Brooklyn, N. Y. Miss Alston is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Alston

Other guests enjoying the hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rankin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. J. Quinton Parker, Atty. and Mrs. LeMarquis DeJamon, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Speight, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Crews, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Goode, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cameron, Mesdames Theodora Manley, Ethel Bounsell, Mary Horton, Virginia Alston and Wilma Milum, Charlie Speight, and George White.

Keeping in tune as usual, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Henderson, held their annual neighborhood children and youth party which has been an event which brings even the former children and college crowd as well as the young marrieds and their families to share in the homecoming activities.

The Satterfield-Davis Club of St. Joseph's A. M. E. Church entertained their guests at a lovely yuletide party at the home of Misses Lucille and May Baines, Alston Ave. Games and the exchange of Token Gifts were a part of the group activities.

The Club also provided a cash donation for a family of 5 members.

Mrs. Edna Tuck serves as president of the club.

Mrs. Mable Powell served as the affable hostess for a pre-New Year's Eve party. Guests included several members of her church choir group from St. Joseph's A. M. E. Church along with other special guests. A delightful time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Crews, Jerome Road, were gracious hosts for a New Year's Day breakfast and open house for many of their friends. Colorful arrangements, along with table cloths, china and crystal, all with the Christmas motif, were set up throughout their home as the many guests partook of the buffet breakfast.

Many of the guests then attended the Emancipation Proclamation Day services at St. Mark A. M. E. Zion Church.

Mrs. Annette Bryant, Old Well Street, celebrated the New Year with a West Indian Motif when she entertained several guests on New Year's night. Guests were treated to Calypso music via informative records. Special narration was given by Ben Fairweather, West Indian entrepreneur about the theme of each record. Some guests received pictures of Island scenes.

Exotic foods, common to the Islands, were served by the hostess. Of special delight was the slide showing of a visit to Barbados by Mrs. S. H. Morgan and her family.

Mrs. Billie Mebane of New York is the house guest of her aunt, Miss Geneva Mebane of 512 Dunbar Street.
