Blacks In The Inauguration

[Continued From Page 1] well of New Bern; St. Augustine's College President, Dr. and Mrs. Prezell Robinson; Mayor and Mrs. E. V. Wikins of Roper; Wake County Commissioner Elizabeth Cofield and her husband James; Representative and Mrs. H. M. Michaux of Durha; Director-designate of the State Economic Opportunity John Edwards; Attorney G. K. Butterfield of Wilson; and former antipoverty worker and recently Wilmington 10 de-Anne Shepard-Turner and her husband Lewis Turner.

THE PARADE

The inaugural affair best attended by Blacks was the parade which included 60 marching bands, the majority from the state's high schools, representing counties, 11 marching units, and 22 military units. The parade passed by reviewing stands which seated Governor and Mrs. Hunt and former Governor and Mrs.

[Continued From Front]
James Holshouser, along with Eure broke the usual "I do" several black dignitaries.

Gone from the parade were the usual all-white bands, "oldest rat in the Democratic carried senators and con-

THE INAUGURATION

"I do" was echoed by Governor Hunt and the Council of State as they took the oath of office administered by Chief Justice Suzie Sharp and her colleagues on the N. C. Supreme Court. Secretary of State Thad with a loud "Ah-ah-ah----- marching units and floats barn", had his family Bible which previously have not turned to a page which he has reflected the racial makeup of reprotedly kissed 10 times the counties and cities that each time he has been sworn they represented. Even the in since his first election in color guard of the 82nd Air- 1936 - as he was sworn in, borne and the Army this time as Secretary of State. National Guard were very Governor Hunt followed with a vily black. not as well practiced by All of the cars that equally vociferous "I do-o-o!"

Governor James Hunt progressmen in the backs had at mised the thousands of persons least one or more blacks gathered in the Bi-centennial riding in the front seat. Even a Plaze "A new beginning" but few of the highway patrol- said that he could not make chauffered convertibles such a beginning along as he were driven by black patrol-solicited help and "full involvement" of all North and Economic Resources. Lee Office of Economic Opportunis the first black cabinet memif accountable to a cohesive ber to serve the state since Reconstruction.Seated in front of political force, could be a new beginning for a larger segment platform were Harold Webb, appointed Director of of blacks in the state.

Hunt had been lieutenant governor for the last four years and a legislator from Wilson County.He soundly defeated his opponents in the Democratic primary with a large bloc of black votes and defeated his Republica contender in the general election again with a solid black vote.

ward Lee, Secretary of Natural

Seated on the platform the State Personnel Division.

ed Director of the State with the Cabinet secretaries Not far from Webb was

and Council of State was Ho- seated John Edwards appoint-

BLACKS IN INAUGURAL-Some of the many black persons participating in the weekend of activitie involving the inauguration of Governor Jim Hunt were captured in the photos on this page. They are (above) H.M. Micheaux, and below, St. Augustine's College, A & T's majorettes and marching band, Congressman Ike Andrews with James and Elizabeth (Wake County Commissioner) Cofield, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lightner, (former Mayor of Raleigh).

FAYETTEVILLE HAPPENINGS

ente tain each of you today in a special way, as many cele-brate his birthday. While we all go marching on."

Congratulations are in style for our new families. Carrianne Beverly Council, daughter of Jessie Lee and Nettie Toomer Council married Charles Anthony Brown of Miami, Florida recently at First Baptist Church.

She attended the University of North Carclina at Chapel Hill and is presently employed as an assistant manager of a Miami Specialty Shop.

The groom attended Miami-Dade College in Miama and is employed at the Balcolm Palmer Eye Institute there. The couple will live in Miama.

The wedding of Wanda ean Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Euly Jones and Edward Kenneth Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McPhaul took place Saturday past at Friendship Baptist Church.

The bride's parents were hosts for the reception at Ramada Inn. She attended Durham College and majored in fashion. She is employed by Happy birthday to Mrs. McDaniel Day Care. He is a H. B. Bell, Mrs. Hazel Hayes, graduate of North Carolina Mrs. V. R. Lee and Theodore Central University where he Kinney. majored in history. He is "May the memories of employed by J. C. Penny. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. They will reside at 721 Edgehill Rd.

> I enjoyed the company of Mrs. Stinson and her family, Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Farmer, Mrs. McDonald, and her family and Mrs. McGheahy.

> Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Leecost Sr. of Richmond, Va., visited their son Dr. Thomas Leecost, Jr., and family during the weekend. They also visited Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kinney on Saturday.

Members of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority conducted a workshop for some twenty gues's on Saturday. Refrestments were served and everyone enjoyed the evening at Mrs. Mable Claggett's home.

On Sunday the Sorority sponsored a "Charm" workshop for the debs and escorts. shop for the debs and escorts.

A Guide to Budgeting for the Family is an updated pubsultants were Mrs. Willie lication from the U. S. Depart-ment of Agriculture designed and William Clemment.

It was good to see FSU's participating in the great inaugural parade on man of the March of Dimes and co-chairman Mrs. Torrey along with many help-ers welcome donations so as to help the children who are fighting the battle of birth defects.

The testimony of Sammy Hall, a former rock star is now with a gospel group in Evange-listic Ministries performed at the Cape Fear High School Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Odessa White at 2218 Nickey Ave. Mrs. White lost her husband Jim Whive, whose fartern! w i held at 2 p.m. Monday past.

CONSUMER GUIDE

This time of year bud gets are a common topic. No matter how careful we try to be, the after holiday slump usually includes a case of the budget blues. There's no better time to decide to handle money more carefully from to help you work out a budget. It includes worksheets and a section on using consumer credit. For your copy of A Guide To Budgeting for the Family, send 35 cents to the Consumer  Information Center, Dept. 81E Mayor Beth Finch chair- Pueblo, Colorado 81009.

MOVE OVER, SHEETS AND TOWELS. SEAGRAM'S WHITE GOODS BONANZA IS UNDER WAY.

Now's the time to stock up on "white goods" from Seagram. In the liquor business, "white goods" are vodka and gin - and Seagram's white goods are the greatest of them all: Wolfschmidt Genuine Vodka and Seagram's Extra Dry Gin.

So, forget the sheets and towels. Pick up plenty of Wolfschmidt Vodka and America's fastest-growing Gin, Seagram's Extra Dry, now during Seagram's White Goods Bonanza days.

Besides, you can't make a martini with a towel.

Now's the time to stock up on Wolfschmidt Vodka and Seagram's Extra Dry Gin.