NEWSMAN

[Con.inued From Front Page]

Due to U. S. Justice Department regulations, the foreign correspondents could not travel to many places in North Carolina to conduct their investigation into the case. Rev. Ben Chavis' cell at McCain Prison was too close to the Fort Bragg Military complex and to Wilmington, N. C. Solton said the restrictions were not imposed simply for the Wilmington investigation but were standard. Sometimes, the correspondent said, he is closely watched while conducting interviews.

The resurgence of federal overnment interest in the Wilmington 10 case and by the Soviet press comes at a time when President Carter and his administration have been very critical of the Soviet Union for imprisonment of what the Carter administration calls, "Soviet dissidents." Solton said the issue of treatment of "Soviet dissidents" was part of a campaign by the right wing in the U.S. to prevent development of good relations between the two countries. particularly in concluding the strategic arms limitation talks (SALT).

Solton said that the question of treatment of what the administration calls "Soviet dissidents" should be put in the perspective that, "They are School criminals under our law." Solton said there are many inconsistencies in the U.S. claim to support human rights land in the U.S. support for military regimes in Chile, South Korea, and Uruguay where human rights are repressed.

Solton said that since Watergate the coverage of American life has intensified in the Soviet press, and that the Soviet people are made aware on a continuing basis of the member of the staff. They various aspects of life in this said her presence in the country.

AFRICAN LEADER

[Continued From Page II

national corporations . . en- gram as a whole. joying their highest returns in the world off of only $1.5 as one of the most effective billion invested in South teachers in establishing a work-Africa." The demonstrations ing rapport with students, reare to take place on March sulting in her classes being 25-26th across the United highly motivational; and has States. The dates commemo- been instrumental in further-Africans were killed when persuasive leadership. police paniced and fired on peaceful demonstrators.

One Durham organization, denouncing the connection of citizers of Chapel Hill. the administration at Duke University to U. S. Corporacans and supporting the Vorster regime Terry Sanford, Duke University president, was targeted as "one such U. S. boss directly involved in U. S. profit-making from apartheid." Sanford, the leaflet continued, "is on the

MRS. CECELIA DAVIS

Mrs. Davis Gets Ed. Award

Mrs. Cecelia "Pinky" Davis was awarded the Outstanding Educator's Award which was presented to her at an Awards Banquet sponsored by the Chapel Hill-Carrboro Jr. Chamber of Commerce in Chapel Hill. The award resulted from the recommendations of Administrators, teachers, and citizens of the Chapel Hill - Carrboro community. Many favorable comments were made at this presentation regarding Mrs. Davis' outstanding contribu-

Mrs. Davis was cited as a most effervescent and exhilarating person. She is a social studies teacher and Grade Level Advisor at Phillips Jr. High School in Chapel Hill. She was also cited as a key school was a very real contributing factor toward the maintenance of good relationships amoung students and staff and toward the development of excellence 315 "U. S. based, multi- in the Phillips School pro-

Mrs. Davis has been noted rate the Sharpesville massacre ing the programs with her in March 22, 1962 in which imaginative ideas and her

She was recently luncheon guest sponsored by WCHL, Radio Station in the Progressive Labor Party of Chapel Hill, where community Durham, distributed handbills problems were discussed with

Mrs. Davis is a native of Raleigh, now residing in Durtions exploiting South Afri. ham with her daughter, Vanessa. executive board of ITT, one of the top five U. S. corporations in South Africa. Capitalist bosses like Sanford pursue te the same racist tactics in the U. S. as they do in South Africa, and we can see them here on this campus."

Study Shows Blacks Less Able To Read Than Whites

Native Americans) and white the exam. people in North Carolina. The mance on the test.

sure of literacy in the state was the number of persons who had completed eight years' schooling. The study was conducted by University of North Carolina Highway Safety Research Center researchers Patricia F. Waller and Robert G. Hall at the request of State Senator McNeil Smith. Smith has indicated further investigation and educational programming is needed in this area.

written and oral tests. The oral test is used when the examiner age 16.

CHAPEL HILL (CCNS) - detects that an applicant is A recently completed study of having trouble reading the test functional illiteracy has shown or when the applicant indicates a vast difference in the reading that he or she does not read ability of non-white (black and sufficiently well to complete

An example of race can study, covering a three-week be seen by the more than period last August, is an double (13.5 per cent) of nonanalysis of oral and written white males who were adminislicensing of drivers in the tered the oral exam and passed state by applicant's age, race, compared to or.ly 5 per cent sex, type of application (ori- of white males who could ginal or renewal) and perfor- not read well enough to take the written test.

Until the study was un- white and black females took dertaken the only recent mea- the oral exam but again 3.6 per cent of white females could not read well enough to take the written exam compared to 7.1 per cent of the black females. The passing rate fcr white female applicants was 66% on the oral exam compared to 43% of black females.

A most depreesing indi-cation of the effect of the high school drop out rate upon the ability of applicants to read well enough to take the written exam also shows a All drivers in North Caro- marked difference in the lina must be licensed by state reading ability of blacks and examiners who administer whites. Compulsory school attendance is not required after 12, 1927.

BLACK PRESS SESQUICENTENNIAL HEADLINERS will include, left to right: Dr. Jay Saunders Redding, award-winning author and emeritus professor of English of Cornell University; Alex Haley, author of "Roots" and Dr. James E. Cheek, president of Howard University, who established the new Black Press Archives and Gallery of Distinguished Newspaper Publishers at Howard in cooperation with the National Newspaper Publishers Association. Dedication of the archives and gallery and the other 150th anniversary observance activities will be held in Washington, March 16-19 in connection with the NNPA Mid-Winter Workshop.

Paces Observe Golden Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Pace of 1301 Vickers Ave., in Durham are celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Mrs. Pace is a native of Wake relations consultant. They were married on March County and the daughter of the late James C. and Ella of their life in the Morris tist Church of Nelson.

Pace is a native of Johnson High Markham. They have one ville-Nelson 'Community until County and the son of the late son, Robert Markham Pace of their retirement in 1964 when Leonard and Lula Creech Pace. Chapel Hill who is a public they moved to Durham. They are members of the American Mr. and Mrs. Pace are re- Association of Retired Pertired farmers. They lived most sons and the Cedar Fork Bap-

BIG BUY

10 3.0 RP

69°

Sears 19-Inch

SAVE $20 Sears 3.5 RP 169.99 14999

BIG BUY

SAVE 1.70

Light-Duty Bench Vice

Reg. $11.89

Seare 3.5 RP Eager-1 Mower Seare 3.5 RP Mower 9999 139

SAVE '5

Craftoman 2-Bag

Reg. 821.99

1699

Craftsman 4-RP Mower

Eager-1, 164cc. 4 Reserve Power engine starts with a simple pull on the side recoil starter. 5 different cutting height adjustments.

K UP ON THESE HARDWARE WEEK SUPER TOOL BUYS

SAVE *4

40-Drawer Storage Cabinet

Reg. 814.99

Clear

1099

see-through

SAVE º7

Crafteman

Electric Stapler

Reg. 3299 Reg. 85.99 Riveter Kit84

SALE

SAVE 4.99

117 Rog. Sep. Price $12.98

22-Inch Chain Drive Eager 1 Self-Propelled Mower. . special purchase 169.99

SAVE 20

NATIONAL NEWS NOTES

GREGORY ENDORSES ABERNATHY

ATLANTA, GA. - Human rights activist and comedian Dick Gregory strongly endorsed Rev. Ralph David Abernathy's campaign for Georgia's Fifth U. S. Congressional District Seat, which was vacated by Ambassador Andrew Young, last week while in Atlanta campaigning for Dr. Abernathy. The nonpartisan special election will take place in Atlanta on March 15. Gregory said "With Ralph Abernathy in this campaign, all other candidates should drop out. I would if I were in it, because Ralph Abernathy can best represent not only this District, but he has over the years, shown he represents ALL people. His election to Congress would put a "people's man" one who can and will, speak out against injustice anywhere at any time - into a too often constipated Congress."

MASS APPEAL TO PRESIDENT ON JOBS

PHILADELPHIA, PA. - A network of more than one thousand (1,000) religious leaders around the nation have joined with Rev. Leon H. Sullivan Founder and National Board Chairman of the Opportunities Industrialization Centers (OIC) in mounting a massive appeal to the President on behalf of the hundreds of thousands of unemployed and underemployed men and women. Rev. Sullivan has urged the clergymen to gather hundreds of thousands of signatures on a petition to be presented to President Carter in April. The petition urges the President to utilize and expand the OIC training and job creation programs which currently operate in 140 communities in 48 states.

BUSINESS AND SOCIAL CONDITIONS

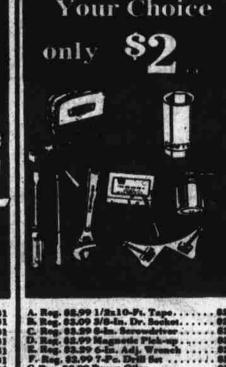

SAN ANTONIO, TEX. — "Business has the power to change social conditions and improve the quality of our lives," and R. J. Reynolds Industries, Inc., is one of many companies committed to using that power.

Marshall B. Bass, corporate director of personnel development for the diversified corporation, explained at the Annual Awards Dinner of the United Negro College Fund recently how and why companies are taking on this responsibility.

The business community can no longer afford to view its responsibility solely as making a profit, Bass said, but must also "serve the needs of society — to the satisfaction of society.

SHOP YOUR NEAREST SEARS RETAIL STORE Greensboro, Winston-Salem, Releigh, Durham, High Point, Burlington, Rocky Mount, Goldsboro, Kinston Sears

Where America shops

Satisfaction Guaranteed or Your Money Back

DURHAM NORTHGATE Shop Monday Through Saturday 9:30 A.M. 'til 9:00 P:M.

Phone 286-2951 Catalog 288-2921 Auto Service Center 9:00 A.M. 'tH 9:00 Pak