Mrs. Mollie Dixon, Selected "Cook of the Year"

"She sings while working and gives the cafeteria a pleasant atmosphere." "I cannot think of anybody more worthy of such an award." Where do you find a lady who has to make over 500 rolls, over 200 biscuits, over 200 buns for sandwiches and 200 to 300 cinnamon buns a day, and still - because the students love them - makes over 200 doughnuts?

These were only a few of the comments used to describe Mrs. Mollie Dixon, a cook at the Durham High School Cafeteria. She was honored at "Cook of the Year" for the Durham City Schools at a Banquet held in Brogden Junior High School Cafeteria near the close of the school year.

Mrs. Dixon was presented with a plaque signed by Dr. Ben T. Brooks, Superintendent of the Durham City Schools, Dr. Theodore R. Speigne, Chairman of the City School Board and Mrs. Annabelle D. Selph, Director of Food Services in Durham City Schools.

Mrs. Selph said Mrs. Dixon "relates in a very personal way to our teenagers." During her 10 years at Durham High School, she has made many friends, teachers and students alike. She is currently serving on the advisory committee at Durham and is "an asset to the school program," according to principal, Earl Hedrick.

Mrs. Ruth Karlsen, cafeteria manager at Durham High she cooks and bakes the little middle of the doughnut, too. She does all of this every with a smile. Never any "ifs" or "buts".

Mrs. Dixon's dedication, understanding and friendliness on the job also earned her gifts and tokens of appreciation from co-workers and teachers at the school.

HONORED ON RETIREMENT

Mrs. Ada B. Curtis was honored by her co-workers and supervisor, Ruby R. Wilson, on Friday night, June 24 at the Biological Sciences Building, Duke University, at a reception prior to her retirement on June 30, from Duke where she has worked for the last 26 years.

Mrs. Curtis was presented an orchid corsage by Willie Gibson. Her retirement gift was a hand made afghan of red, white and blue.

A dinner was served to the attendees.

Mrs. Kaiser Woman Of The Year

Mrs. Inez Yeargan Kaiser was the recipient of the 1977 Woman of the Year award in the field of Business-Labor presented by the Central Kansas City Business and Professional Women's Club.

The Kansas City business woman was chosen because of the significant contributions she has made, her sustained high quality of work, efficiency as well as for outstanding performance and dedication.

Mrs. Kaiser is also the president of The National Association of Minority Women in Business and National Treasurer of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Mrs. Inez Kaiser in Kansas City awards dinner. Mrs. Kaiser, president of Inez Kaiser and Associates, Inc., one of the oldest black female-owned public relations, advertising and marketing firms was presented the award at the clubs first annual banquet. Mrs. Alexis Herman, Director of the Woman's Bureau of the Department of Labor was the speaker.

SURPRISE, SURPRISE! - No, she isn't falling. This was just Mrs. Spaulding's happy reaction as she entered her daughter's home to be met with "Surprise, surprise" and "Happy Birthdays."

By Mrs. T. H. Kinney

Thousands celebrated the Nation's 201st birthday over the weekend with brief ceremonies, day long activities, parades, firework displays, horse shows, tournaments, and cook-outs all over town.

"Fun Caravans" are in session with arts, crafts, sports and music at four locations: Murchison Rd.'s Rosemary Place; Ramsey St., Circle Court Park, Hope Park, and Cliffdale Road from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. for ages 6-13.

Swim classes are in session for adults at Seabrook from 1-6 p.m.

Artist John Scarlata exhibits his work at the Arsenal House through July 22.

The Kinneys traveled to Marlboro and Dillon, S. C. counties during the 4th and enjoyed relatives, friends, cook-outs and visiting.

Miss Calla Hodges celebrated her birthday, Sunday, July 3 on the lawn of her grandmother's with friends, relatives and a cook-out.

The Rev. Ralph Richardson will conduct an illustrated study on 1 John Chapter 2 during the monthly family night Bible Study, July 7 at 7:30 p.m. at the YMCA on Ft. Bragg Road.

Funeral services for Doch McAllister, 707 Murchison Rd. are incomplete at this time.

The Frederick Family Reunion Association for 1977 was held Saturday past at the Army in Warsaw with Mrs. Odell Frederick

Hodges serving as the main chairperson. The main session was held from 12:30 until 9:30 p.m. Welcome was given by Mrs. Ozzie Wilson. Prayer and grace was by Elder E. C. Camell, pastor of Hines Chapel FW Baptist Church, Warsaw. The message was delivered by Mrs. Lela Williams Frederick.

Over 200 persons were in attendance, many meeting and greeting each other for the first time.

Lunch was served buffet style.

Mrs. Viola Williams cut the Family Reunion Cake which was red, white and blue with little flags which the children enjoyed receiving as souvenirs.

Miss Angela Hodges cut the first watermelon at the watermelon cutting. Burnis Miller, Walter Cook and Hubert Hodges served as comedians for the day.

All relatives, friends, and guests were recognized.

Mrs. Thelma H. Kinney organized the program and fellowship activities and designed the family tree. She thanked the relatives for coming.

The members of the Frederick Reunion Association, thanks each person attending for good wishes, gifts, flowers, dishes, services and attendance. "May your days be as great as the deeds you have done."

Reunion chairpersons carried tokens to the sick and shut in family members on Monday.

Something to think about - If a family divides itself into groups that fight each other, that family will fall apart and come to an end. So let's raise happiness to the family level.
