

DeJARMON GRANT AVAILABLE

North Carolina Central University Law School, Durham, announced that a grant of $1,100 will be available for minority students in the 1977-78 academic year from the LeMarquis DeJarmon Scholarship Fund. This fund, which is named after the former dean of the Law School, was created by an anonymous donor at the time of the dean's resignation. Dean DeJarmon retired as dean after seven years' service as the top administrator at North Carolina Central University School of Law. He is presently a professor of law at the Law School.

NEW STORES OPEN IN NORTHGATE

Regina's Gift Gallery became the newest store to open at Northgate Mall. Mayor Wade Cain was on hand to cut the red ribbon. Master of Ceremonies was George Ferguson, resident manager, Northgate Mall. The owners of the store, Mr. and Mrs. Quint Macon, Jr. of Henderson were welcomed by representatives of Northgate store managers, members of the news media and the public.

Regina's Gift Gallery located between Pet Luv and The Curtain Shop, features gift wrap, stationary, glassware, candles, wood, leather goods, novelties, cards and games.
