Call For Action Plans "Ask the Tax Expert Day"

Call for Action plans the second "Ask the Tax Expert Day" which will be sponsored by Call For Action and State Certified Public Accountant Societies.

On Thursday, March 1, 1979, from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. the North Carolina Association of Certified Public Accountants will provide six accountants in our area, who are experienced tax specialists to man the telephones at the Durham Call For Action Office. Persons who have questions on taxes and tax returns will be able to get their answers from these tax experts. If you are having income tax problems or problems with the new forms be sure to call 688-9306 at this time.

Call For Action is a volunteer organization, which receives all of its support from the private sector. Each year 2500 volunteers help more than 360,000 callers. A unique feature of Call For Action, which distinguishes it from other agencies, is a call-back and follow-up system whereby return calls are made to check the results [Continued On Page 15]
