FLORAL CLUB HOLDS VALENTINE PARTY

The annual Valentine Party sponsored by the Floral Club of Benezar Baptist Church held February 24, was a joyful occasion for all persons present. Games led by club members Mesdames Lois Smith, Addie Barbee, Illa Mac Evans and Beatrice Turrentine brought fun and laughter to the party.

The tables were laden with all kinds of sandwiches, fruits, cakes, nuts and candies and punch and served to the guests.

"Love Lifted Me" was enthusiastically sung by the entire audience.

Guests from many neighboring churches enjoyed the hospitality of the occasion. Special guests invited included two ministers and their wives, Bishop and Mrs. F. Yelverton and Rev. and Mrs. L. W. Reid. Each minister made remarks concerning the relationship existing between their churches and Ebenezer for years.

A tribute to the president, Mrs. Addie Barbee, was given by a club member for leadership exhibited through her faithfulness to the club.

The pastor, Rev. Thurman Hariston, with remarks of welcome to all, had the audience to stand and give applause to Mrs. Barbee. He closed with prayer for the sick and those who were not able to attend.
