

Dr. Miller, Joseph Brooks to Address Spring Conference at Bennett

Bennett College president, Dr. I.H. Miller, and Emergency Land Fund president, Mr. Joseph F. Brooks, will address the general session of the Spring Conference of the Student Committee on Land Loss of Blacks (SCOLLOB) which will open at 10 a.m. on Saturday, April 7, 1979 at Bennett College in Greensboro, North Carolina.

Students from throughout the state are invited to attend the conference beginning on Friday evening at six o'clock with "Howdy Hour" in Pfeiffer Science Hall. Mr. Michael A. Bourne, Student Government Association president of Shaw University, Raleigh, will chair a discussion on election procedures in preparation for SCOLLOB election of officers on Saturday morning. The evening session will close with a Landowners' Workshop to familiarize students with land law.

Election of officers, conducted by Miss Gracie Pemberton of Johnson C. Smith University, Charlotte, will be held after the addresses of the keynote speakers. Other outstanding participants scheduled to appear include Graham Center Staff Member, Mr. Virgil L. Chance as a representative of the Rural Advancement Fund of the National Sharecroppers Fund, Inc.

At 2 p.m. Saturday, a panel discussion on "Stemming the Tide of Black Land Loss", with Attorney Mildred B. Payton as moderator, will point out ways of avoiding land loss by the usual pitfalls of mortgage foreclosure, tax foreclosure, adverse possession, partition sales, etc. A question and answer period is planned to answer questions which the general public may have concerning land problems.

The public is cordially invited to attend all sessions.

Superdome to be Scene of Beauty and Trade Show

NEW ORLEANS — The gigantic Superdome will be the scene of one of the largest and most complete beauty shows in the history of Black Cosmetology and Beauty Culture when Hackmar Productions presents its first annual beauty and trade show.

Billed as "The Greatest and Biggest Black Beauty Show on Earth", this hair fashion extravaganza is expected to attract beauticians, cosmetologists, hair fashion designers, professional product manufacturers and allied professionals from across the United States and abroad. The show is scheduled for June 10-12 1979.

The show is designed to keep hair professionals abreast of changing trends new ideas, and new products and equipment for the trade.

Several top attractions are slated and five hotels adjacent to the giant Superdome has been reserved to accommodate the throngs of delegates attending the event. Special rates are being made available at the Hyatt Regency Hotel, Travel Lodge Inn, Marriott Hotel, Howard Johnson's and the Hilton Hotel.

The new and different show is being promoted on a $25,000 budget that includes media advertisement, computerized mail-out service, and stipends to attract top names and trendsetters in the beauty culture field.
