Maroon Defeats Gray 57-46 In NCCU Scrimmage

NCCU closed its spring football scrimmage with a controlled scrimmage on Saturday morning at O'Kelly Stadium with the Maroon team defeating the Gray team 57-46.

Junior quarterback Charles Yuille paced the Maroon team completed 9 of 21 passes for 142 yards.

Senior Ken Pugh added 64 and sophomore William Marbury 59.

"We were pleased with the offensive and defensive play," exclaimed NCCU mentor Henry Latimore. "We looked good in spite of having less than two weeks of practice. I am looking to the fall practice and the addition of needed backup recruited personnel."

The controlled scrimmage was played with the following scoring—Touchdown 7 points; First Down by offense 2 points; Defense stopping First Down 2 points; Interception 3 points; Safety 2 points. Additionally the offensive unit (Maroon) had three downs to gain ten yards.

The Maroon team made 18 first downs and had three touchdowns—a 1 yard run by Andre Cooper; a 15 yard pass from William Marbury to Andre Cooper; and a 16 yard pass from Charles Yuille to Carl Sanders.

The Gray team stopped the Maroon team 17 times and had four interceptions. Stellar defensive performances were turned in by senior linebacker Gary Harris, tackles John Hunt and Ken Ramsey and the entire defensive backfield.

Moore, Murphy And Wade Grab Honors

ORANGEBURG, S.C. — Senior football standouts Phillip Murphy and Bobby Moore and sophomore tennis star Donald Wade took the top awards at South Carolina State College's athletic awards program Tuesday.

Murphy, who recently set a new shotput record in the MEAC Track and Field Championship, was presented the Presidential Award for the best all-around athlete. The Middletown, Conn. native also lettered on the Bulldog football and basketball teams.

Moore, a defensive end, earned the J.D. Marshall Memorial Award as the senior athlete who has best promoted the high ideals of the college, while excelling in athletics and displaying school spirit and loyalty.

Defensive Player of the Year in the MEAC and a Mutual Black Network All American, Moore also earned best defensive lineman and most inspirational honors during the program.

Wade, who was the number three singles player on the men's track squad, received the Scholarship Award as the top student-athlete at the college. The Columbia native compiled a grade-point average of 3.43 out of a possible 4.00.

Members of the college's nine athletic teams were also presented special achievement awards in their respective sports.

In addition to championship trophies in track, football and wrestling, the MEAC's T.L. Hill Memorial All-Sports Trophy for overall excellence in athletics was presented by the athletic staff to college president M. Maceo Nance, Jr., marking the sixth straight year that S.C. State has earned the prestigious award.

NCCU Signs 3 Cage Players To Grant-In-Aid

NCCU head basketball coach Jesse Clements announced the signing of three players to National Letters of Intent to attend North Carolina Central University—6-4 Leonard McKoy of Clarkton, 6-3 Vichon Fuller of Atkinson and 6-1 Frederick Hunter of Durham.

McKoy led Clarkton High School to four straight State 1-A runnerup. He led Clarkton in scoring with 20.9 points and in rebound-
