SORORS PARTICIPATE AT AKA REGIONAL CONFERENCE

The twenty-sixth annual Mid-Atlantic Regional Conference of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority convened in Asheville April 20-22. Local sorors who participated on the program or served on committees from Alpha Zeta Omega Chapter were: Geraldine Alston, Elva DeJarmon, Clara Lawson, Josie Pittman, George O'Rourke, Norma Royal, Constance Scott, and Jocelyn Stevens.

Other sorors attending the conference were: Ida Alexander, Beatrice Cherry, Geraldine Dunn, Viola Crowder, Adele Butts, Delores Evans, Gerald Hatcher, Lillia A. Moss, Mamie Lewis, Paula McAdoo, Caroline Lattimore, Delores Washington, and Zephia Watson. Soror Vivian M. Crump, also attending the conference, was the recipient of the Annie L. Harvey Soror of the Year Award. This award is presented to the graduate soror who has given extensively of herself to the Sorority during the year. Her accomplishments are reflected in her chapter. Soror Crump was awarded a silver bowl for this outstanding honor.

An active member of Alpha Zeta Omega, Soror Crump has served as Grammateus for four terms. She has also served as graduate advisor for several years with Iota Mu, Duke University, where she is now serving as chairman and member of several committees.

Sorors who were given recognition for having 25 or more years of service in Alpha Kappa Alpha were: Elva DeJarmon, Jocelyn Stevens, Geraldine Alston, Beatrice Cherry and Vivian Crump. These sorors were awarded certificates, silver medallions, and an Ivy Leaf. Soror Josie Pittman was recognized for fifty years of service with the sorority. She was awarded a gold medallion, certificate and an Ivy Leaf.

The 27th Mid-Atlantic Regional Conference will be held in Hampton, Virginia, March 21-23, 1980.

JABBERWOCK APPRECIATION PROGRAM SUNDAY

The Durham Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta is hosting a Jabberwock Appreciation Program on Sunday, May 5, 4 p.m., at Saint Mark AME Zion Church. The Jabberwock Pageant, the highlight of the Jabberwock activities, was held on April 14. Funds raised by the Jabberwock participants are used for scholarships for needy college-bound students in the area.

The reception is being held in honor of the 21 high school girls who participated in the Jabberwock, their parents, and the businesses and individuals who sponsored them. Hostesses for the affair will be the Probates of Delta Sigma Theta, Durham Alumnae Chapter.

'All Sports Banquet'

Honored by Howard University for outstanding contributions to athletes and other students was F.W. Woolworth Co. executive, Aubrey C. Lewis, vice president for administrative services. Sondra Norrell-Thomas (right), associate director athletics at Howard, presented Lewis, New Jersey Sports Authority Commissioner and former All-American football and track star, with a plaque at the school's annual "All Sports Banquet." She cited the Montclair, N.J., executive for his help in broadening opportunities for Howard students in business as well as athletics.

"MISS ISISERETTES PAGEANT" TO BE HELD SATURDAY

On Saturday, May 5, at 7:30 p.m., the "Miss Isiserettes Pageant" will be held at Zafa Temple No. 176, 2312 South Alston Avenue. In addition to the crowning of the queen, a program will be presented by the Isiserettes. The public is invited to attend.

The Isiserettes Youth Club is composed of 43 young girls between the ages of seven and eighteen. This club is under the auspices of Zafa Court No. 41, Daughters of Isis, an auxiliary of Zafa Temple No. 176, Ancient Egyptian Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine of North and South America, Inc.

The Isiserettes were organized here seven years ago, primarily because of the interest of Dr. Louise W. Weeks, a member of Zafa Court No. 41. Having been exposed to the national program of the Daughters of Isis and its emphasis on youth development through the Isiserettes Youth Club, Dr. Weeks was anxious to establish a chapter here. She gained the support of her local court and thus began "The Isiserettes Youth Club of Zafa Court No. 41, Daughters of Isis." Other courts in North Carolina which support Isiserettes are located in Raleigh, Fayetteville, Goldsboro, Greensboro and Winston-Salem.

Members of the Isiserettes Youth Club come from families throughout the Durham community. The purpose of the club is to stimulate girls mentally, spiritually, and socially to become women of high repute and aid them in leading productive lives.

The Isiserettes learn parliamentary procedure by electing their own officers, conducting their own meetings and planning their activities. Officers are: president, Miss Renee Daniels; secretary, Miss Phyllis Throckmorton, and treasurer, Miss Marian Alston. These girls are students at Hillside High School.

A group of ladies from Zafa Court work on an Isiserettes Youth Club Committee, spearheaded by Dr. Louise W. Weeks, chairman, and Dr. Marva B. Thorpe, co-chairman. Dr. Weeks and Dr. Thorpe volunteer their time in meeting with the Isiserettes serving as advisors and guiding them in their program of activities. Meetings are held monthly at Zafa Temple.

Each year the Isiserettes look forward to an out-of-town trip to attend the Gala Day activities sponsored by the Shriners. This trip offers an opportunity for the girls to meet other Isiserettes from various cities and states in an exchange of ideas and programs. This year's Gala Day is being held in Winston-Salem, May 24-27. The Isiserettes, along with chaperones, will attend these activities and will participate in the parade on Saturday, May 26. They will return to Durham on Sunday, May 27.

Each year since organization, the Isiserettes have marched in the North Carolina Central University Homecoming Parade. They have attained considerable recognition in their gold and white uniforms and their fancy marching steps.

Dr. Rosalee Shrape serves as Illustrious Commandress of Zafa Court No. 41, Daughters of Isis.

ONE HUNDRED ONE IN WHITE

The Worthy Matron, officers and members of Prospect Chapter No. 379, Order of Eastern Star, invite the public to the observance of their 30th Anniversary, Sunday, May 6 at 6 p.m., at Ebenezer Baptist Church.

The Mount Vernon Baptist Church Mass Choir will present a concert.

"One Hundred One In White" is the theme of the observance.

RETIRED SCHOOL PERSONNEL TO MEET TUESDAY

The Durham City and County Retired School Personnel will meet Tuesday, May 8 at 2:30 p.m., at Henderson Towers, 807 South Duke Street.

The Hillside Choral Group, under the direction of Mrs. Timberlake, will sing.

A sale of home baked food, handicrafts and plants will be a feature of the meeting. Proceeds of the sale will go to help purchase furniture for the office of the Retired School Personnel of the NCAE in the new NCAE Building in Raleigh.

Each member is asked to bring something for the sale.

Durhamites Gala Cabaret

Dear Durhamite:

Perhaps you have already heard that we Durhamites of Metropolitan Washington, D.C., Area were very successful last year when we celebrated our first scholarship gala.

To that end, we donated a scholarship in the amount of $1,000.00 to our recipient, Ms. Tara Fikes. Tara is about to complete her first year of college work at the University of North Carolina.

It was because of folks like you who provided the means to give a scholarship that we were able to help carry Tara through some of the difficulties encountered as a freshman in a college environment. Thank you for caring!

Chances are you are wondering what we are doing now. This year we plan to give a second scholarship to another deserving senior high school student who lives in the City/County of Durham, North Carolina, to help provide financial support during the first year in college. Further, we plan to move forward to help meet some of the needs of the community.

In fulfilling our objectives, again, we call on you to join us in supporting our second annual public money making activity. We promise to go all the way, and then some, in providing an occasion you cannot afford to miss and at the same time help you to renew old ties with friends.
