DAUGHTERS OF DORCAS

On May 3, Mrs. Gladys Faucette was hostess to the Daughters of Dorcas at her home on Ridgeway Avenue. The president, Mrs. Gazella P. Lipscomb, presided.

After the club song, Mrs. Faucette, leader of devotions, offered prayer. Each member recited a quotation. The business session followed.

Business over, Mrs. Julia Harris, a board member of the Coordinating Council for Senior Citizens, expressed gratitude that the club had taken a sustaining membership in the Council, and solicited individual memberships as well. Several ladies were already members, and a number of others paid their joining fees then.

Mrs. Lyda Merrick, one of the Mothers of the Year chosen by the Merchants Association, told of having just attended a lovely dinner honoring the Mothers of the Year.

A delicious dinner was attractively served by Mrs. Faucette to the following members: Mesdames Lottie Campbell, Alice Collins, Gertrude Gibson, Julia Harris, Sallie Harris, Ora Lee, Gazella Lipscomb, Margaret Mack, Fannie McLean, Ruby McNeill, Lyda Merrick, Miss Marjorie Shepard, Mesdames Clumpertee Tucker, Lyda Wray, and Ernestine Young.

Mrs. Sarah Smith, President of the Junior Daughters, was a guest.

Mrs. Gibson, on behalf of the club, thanked the hostess for the gracious hospitality, and invited the club to meet with her on June 7 at the J.J. Henderson Center.

DELTA TEEN AWARENESS PROGRAM SCHEDULED FOR THREE SATURDAYS

The Delta Life Development Center at 1805 Chapel Hill Road is sponsoring a Teen-Age Awareness Program on three consecutive Saturdays. On May 12, 19 and 26, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., the Center will be open to area youth interested in learning more about teen-age relationships. Parents are also welcome.

Because of the mature nature of the information to be discussed, all students must bring signed parental consent forms. These consent forms can be secured from guidance counselors in Durham city and county high schools, including Hillside and Durham High, from area churches, W.D. Hill Recreation Center, and Stanford Warren Library.

The Delta Life Development Center is a public service project of the Durham Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Resource persons for the May 12, 19 and 26 sessions on Teen-Age Awareness will include the Probates of Delta Sigma Theta, Durham Alumnae Chapter.

EVER-READY CLUB

The monthly meeting of the Ever-Ready Club was held at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Chavis recently.

The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Esther Moore, president. The club's Mother's Day program, which will be held during the 11 a.m. service on May 13, was discussed. Mrs. Moore will be the speaker.
