In parts of Prussia it was once believed good luck to see wind in the oat fields.

AWARD WINNER

Mrs. Alma Biggers introduced Mrs. Patricia Harris Perry, the recipient of the Volkamenia Club Prize for Excellency in English, for four years, at North Carolina Central University. This award is an annual presentation of the Club. It was a happy coincidence for Mrs. Biggers to introduce Mrs. Perry since Mrs. Biggers was the 1936 recipient of said prize. On behalf of the Club, the president, Mrs. Virginia Alston (left) presents twenty-five dollar check to Mrs. Perry. Others in the picture are: (from left) Mrs. Katherine Thomas, Club secretary; Mrs. Lyda Merrick, one of the founders of the Club, and Mrs. Biggers.

Moize Gives Senior Recital

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Moize, Sr., of 1006 Plum Street, Durham, chartered two buses for family, friends and Plum Street neighbors, to attend the senior recital of their son, Billy, at the North Carolina School of the Arts in Winston-Salem on Saturday, April 28.

His program consisted of tenor vocal selections by Brahms, Salvador Rosa, Antonio Lottie, Francisco Cilea, Gabriel Faure, Vittorio Gianni, Charles Ives and Umberto Giordano. He was accompanied by Mrs. Ann Listokin at the piano.

After a standing ovation, Moize sang "His Eye Is On The Sparrow" for an encore. He was accompanied at the piano by Derrick Newsome.

The group then went to the Commons Building on campus where his parents entertained with a reception.
