Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Boulware Honored Senior Citizens Of 19

What initially started out as a celebration of Senior Citizens Month, turned into a community-wide celebration honoring Dr. C. E. Boulware and his wife Mrs. Iriana Boulware as Senior Citizens of 1979. The event was held at J.J. Henderson Senior Citizens Center, sponsored by the Durham Chapter of the National Council of

Senior Citizens. One man who is probably with Dr. Boulware as he executes his civic duties on the City Council more than Boulware is with his wife, spoke on behalf of the City Council. Mayor Wade Cavin made a special tribute to Mrs. Boulware. During Dr. Boulware's long and distinguished service as a member of the Durham City Council all of us have been mindful that Mrs. Boulware has also played an important role as his devoted wife and constant companion throughout this period of such outstanding service," remarked Cavin. Greetings and congratulatory messages were received from several other organizations. Introduced by Sam

Reed, president of Durham Chapter National Senior Citizens Council, the got a standing

ALD Celebration Called Most Militant Ever

Under the banner of "Death To The Smith Regime: Victory to the Patriotic Front" more than 4,000 people marched in Washington, D.C. this past weekend in one of the most militant African Liberation Day (ALD) demonstrations ever.

Other major slogans of the day were "US-USSR Hands Off Africa," "Cut Diplomatic Ties With South Africa," and "Funds For Education Not War Preparation."

The march and rally were led by the Workers Viewpoint Organization (WVO) and the African Liberation Support Committee (ALSC).

The North Carolina contingent of more than 200 included many from Durham, Greensboro, Chatham County, and Rocky Mount. Other delegations came from as far away as Houston and Chicago. A West Coast demonstration will be held on May 19 in Oakland, California.

Dressed in khaki shirts and black berets, a contingent from the Revolutionary Youth League (RYL) led the demonstrators out of Malcolm X Park, where the different groups had assembled. Marshals wearing red armbands kept the march disciplined on the way to the White House.

At one point the demonstration suddenly detoured from its prearranged route in order to pass by Deeks, one of the major distributors of the South African gold coin, the Krugerrand. An ALSC speaker on the soundtruck blasted out the message "The Krugerrand is blood money wrung from the labor of black Southern African miners to prop up apartheid. Deeks refuses to stop selling South African gold. It is our duty to build a movement to shut Deeks down!" And as if in response, a brick crashed through the big plate glass storefront. Marshals urged people to stay calm, move fast, and close ranks. Police made no move to interfere with the march.

At the White house, the sound truck led a chant of "Carter, Carter, no more lies! Cut state ties to apartheid!"

Back at Malcolm X Park, speaker after speaker rose to express solidarity with the "heroic brothers and sisters who have persisted in armed struggle in southern Africa."

A speaker from the Trade Union Education League (TUEL) explained how it is the same government that is trying to force wage controls on us, take away the gains of minorities and women under cover of "reverse discrimination," and split the working class that is supporting the fascist white minority governments in Rhodesia and South Africa. He said "The TUEL gives full support to the liberation movements in Africa and will fight to build the unity of the multinational working class in the U.S."

A representative from the RYL called on youth "to organize to fight worsening conditions here in the U.S." and pointed out that the only solution to police brutality, high unemployment, and lousy education—as well as the best way to aid liberation struggles in Africa—is to "organize revolution in the U.S."

The speaker from the Workers Viewpoint Organization said that revolutionaries must "oppose both superpowers, U.S. imperialism and Soviet socialist imperialism." He said that today the Soviets are the main danger to the independence of the third world peoples. He called on people in the U.S. to "build up the party of the working class, the Workers Viewpoint Organization, to overthrow the capitalist system through violent revolution and set up the dictatorship of the proletariat."

A representative from ZANU, member of the Patriotic Front of Zimbabwe, declared that victory of the people of Zimbabwe was at hand and that ZANU would never give up the struggle for socialism. David Sebico of the Pan Africanist Congress of Azania called on all those assembled to "renew and redouble your efforts" to support African liberation, and to "go back to your communities" and build up the movement against the U. S. Government to cut diplomatic relations with South Africa.

There will be a meeting of the Durham African Liberation Support Committee on May 29 at 7:30 p.m. For information call Ros Pelles at 596-7449.
