

Poetry Contest Winners are Named

Thirteen students representing seven Durham public and non-public schools were named winners in a Poetry Contest sponsored by the Durham Chapter of National Barristers' Wives, Inc.

Using the theme "Poetry, Childhood, and Spring," organizers of the Contest planned it in conjunction with International Year of the Child activities.

The Contest involved 450 students and 67 teachers from 26 Durham Schools. Over 600 poems were submitted in four categories of the Contest.

Winners in the kindergarten through third grade category were: first place, Gregory Hall, 3rd grade, East End School; second, Shea Maynard, 2nd grade, Durham Academy; and third, Kristen Wimmer, 2nd grade, Hillandale School.

In the next category, 4th through 6th grade, the winners were: first place, Shonta Williams, 4th grade, E.K. Powe School; second, Ann Simon, 6th grade, Carolina Friends School and third, Linda Green, 4th grade, Durham Academy.

Winners in the seventh through ninth grade category were: first place, Martha Lee, 9th grade, Carrington Junior High; second, David Hull, 7th grade, Durham Academy; and third, Marc R. Cheek, 8th grade, Carrington Junior High.

Winners in the 10th through 12th grade category were: first place, Sherrill Bach, 11th grade, Durham Academy; second, Tracey McCorkle, 12th grade, Hillside High School; and third, a tie between Mimi Herman, 11th grade, Carolina Friends, and Valerie Kennedy, 10th grade, Durham Academy.

Judges for the Contest were Dr. Arthrell Sanders,

Associate Professor of English at North Carolina Central University; Mrs. Delores Melvin, a poet and sculptor; and Mr. E.T. Malone, also a poet and a member of the NCCU English faculty.

The students read their prize-winning poems in ceremonies at the NCCU Art Museum, on May 18. All prize winners received gifts, including books or gift certificates to purchase books of their choice.

Music offerings for the awards and readings were by Nicole Turner of Immaculata, Sandra Bryant of Hillside, Renee Page of Hillside and Nicholas Kitchen of Carolina Friends.

The NCCU Museum of Art, also celebrating International Year of the Child, featured a Special Exhibition. Including among the works were a terra cotta head of a little boy by North Carolina-born Sculptor William Artis (1914-1977) and a bronze head of a little girl, "Julie Manet" by Sculptor Berthe Morisot (1841-1895). The William Artis sculpture was lent anonymously by a friend of the Museum. The Morisot was a loan from the North Carolina Museum of Art. Mr. Norman Pendergraft is Director of the NCCU Museum.

Serving on the Poetry Contest Committee were Mrs. C.C. Spaulding Jr., Chairman; Mrs. W. Wayne Perry and Mrs. Nathaniel Belcher. Mrs. Harry E. Groves is president of the Durham Chapter of Barrister's Wives, Inc.

Also assisting with the Contest were Mrs. W.G. Pearson II, Mrs. Lawrence Colbert, Mrs. Ronald Belfon, Mrs. Eric Michaux, Mrs. Henry Gamble, Mrs. A.J.H. Clement III, and Mrs. LeMarquis DeJarmon

FAYETTEVILLE HAPPENINGS

By MRS. T. H. KINNEY

Seemingly the good news is about radar. The bad news is about gas.

The members of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority met in a regular meeting from 3-5 p.m. at Eddie's Pig and Chicken off Murchinson Road on Sunday past.

Many were home for Memorial Day weekend and attended the grand E.E. Smith and Friends Reunion which was held this weekend in Bull Land.

Many were home and drove to Warsaw, N.C., to attend the Douglass High School Class "1950" Reunion which was held at the Country Squire. Music was rendered by the "Hesitations" of Warsaw. Food, fun, games, gifts, smiles and hugs were enjoyed as others joined the class of 1950. The wishing wells were filled with "wish cookies" and candles glowed on each table. Mr. Clarence Boney introduced the members and special guests. The history was written by the class's second grade teacher Miss Laura Bell Truzzel who now lives in Baltimore, Maryland. The group introduced its Board members also. The group worshipped at First Baptist Church. From Fayetteville Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kinney and son and Mrs. Helen Bell and daughter were in attendance.

The music department of Elizabeth Cashwell Elementary School will present music program on Monday. Singing dancing and musical instruments will be featured. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. C. Walker announce the engagement of their daughter, Bettina Renata, to Lt. Glenn Albert Dorman Jr. of Orangeburg, S.C. The wedding is planned for July 21 at Main Past Chapel at Ft. Bragg. The bride-elect is a graduate of Fayetteville State University with a degree in social studies and a master's degree in psychology from North Carolina Central University. She is employed by the Cumberland County school's educationally handicapped program.

Lt. Dorman is a graduate of the U.S. Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Colo., with a degree in engineering science. He received his pilot training at Laughlin Air Force Base in Del Rio, Texas. He is presently serving with the U.S. Air Force as a C-130 pilot at Pope Air Force Base.

A barbecue will be sponsored by the Cumberland County Democratic Executive Committee at the Jaycee Fairgrounds on Friday 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Medical Assistants' Week has been declared for the week of May 20-27 by Fayetteville Mayor Beth Finch. The week honored all persons who work in Physicians' offices, hospitals and other medical facilities.

Persons interested in applying for harvest work in tobacco production should contact the local Job Service Office 414 Ray Ave. Workers recruited will receive $3 an hour.

Mrs. Velma Parker of Brooklyn, N.Y. was here visiting her N.C. relatives and friends.

Miss Laura Truzzel of Baltimore, Md. and Mrs. Lizzie Moore and children are visiting their families.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Amanda Thigpen in the loss of her brother.

Happy Birthday Anniversary to Mrs. Dorothy Cabiness, Mrs. Ruby Williams, Mrs. Edna Carrington and John Kay from relatives and friends.

The Cumberland County Young Lawyer's Association installed its new officers recently.

Mrs. Marlene Parker, director of testing with the Cumberland County School System, was guest speaker on the topic of diagnostic tests at a recent meeting. Mrs. Parker explained types of tests administered in the local school system and gave illustrations of types of questions used in the competency test program in the state. Six members of the club attended the meeting.

See and hear Ms. Shirley Caesar in the Cumberland County Auditorium at 8 p.m. on June 3.
