

Mademoiselles presented in the pageant from left to right are: Carla Cameron, Ruby Prescott, Cheryl D. Lipscomb, Rosita M. Evans, Denise Tucker, Gayle Vaughan, Wendy Bivens, Pamela Billie, and Moronda Burwell.

The First Mademoiselle Rosita M. Evans, center, being crowned by Mrs. Evans with Wendy Bivens, right, and Cheryl D. Lipscomb, left, looking on.

Moranda Burwell wearing an 18th century French costume which won 1st prize.

Zeta's Present "April In Paris"

The Eta Phi Zeta Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. of Chapel Hill, N.C. held its first annual Petites Mademoiselles Pageant at the Washington-Duke Motel on April 21, 1979. This fund-raising project presented nine little misses ranging from seven to thirteen years of age.

The pageant's theme, "April In Paris", was reflected by a backdrop depicting sidewalk cafes in the streets of Paris. The nine young ladies in all their grandeur were given opportunities to be judged and voted on for presentations of talent, fund-raising, costume, congeniality, all-around mademoiselle and honorable mentions.

As a part of the fund-raising event, the young ladies participated in charm school activities. They also learned to speak French taught by Messrs. Lawrence Davidson of A&T State University. They also stretched their horizons through a tour of the N.C. Museum of Art in Raleigh which was followed by a luncheon and roller skating.

As a result of the judges' decisions, in talent, 1st place went to Ruby Prescott, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Prescott of Durham, second place to Wendy Bivens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bivens; third place to Maronda Burwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burwell. In fashion, first place went to Rosita Evans, daughter of Mrs. Juanita Evans of Durham; second place to Moronda Burwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Burwell of Durham; third place to Gayle Vaughan of Durham. In French costume period, first place went to Maronda Burwell; second place to Rosita Evans, and third place to Pamela Billie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Foushee of Chapel Hill.

The Miss congeniality award went to Gayle Vaughan of Durham. Cheryl D. Lipscomb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Lipscomb of Blanch, N.C. was chosen most all-around.

To climax the occasion the crowning of the first Mademoiselle captured the audience. Rosita Martinus Evans, daughter of Mrs. Juanita Evans and a student at Cheving Junior High was crowned Queen. Wendy Bivens daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bivens and a student at Immaculate was first runner-up. Cheryl D. Lipscomb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Lipscomb and a student at Bartlett-Yancey Elementary, was second runner-up.

Honorable mentions went to Denise Tucker, daughter of Mrs. Minnie Tucker and Carla Cameron, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.M. Cameron both of Durham.

Mrs. Gloria Prescott and her son provide ment of Public Instruction and Mr. James E. Kerr, as judges.

...sion. Mrs. ... for the State Department of Housing Authority of the City of Durham served

Miss Congeniality Gayle Vaughan

Ruby Prescott, first place talent winner, plays the violin.

ha tre sic Lo sot the mi W Ka tai of Lc m wi th th fo w fu ca si la fe re ti br q N p le go C pl in w ay y d th e k s t ti a b tl is s N s t C r t e t l c s t t e t l l

3 4 5 8 9 10 11 12 13 14