18TH ANNUAL SESSION OF PNBC TO BE HELD AUG. 6-12

The 18th Annual Session of the Progressive National Baptist Convention (PNBC) will be held in New Orleans, from Monday, August 6 through Sunday, August 12. Convention Headquarters will be the Hyatt Regency Hotel, with sessions of the convention and its auxiliaries being held at the Municipal Auditorium and other hotels.

This will mark the first time that Dr. William Augustus Jones, Jr., militant new President of the denomination, presides at an Annual Session. Dr. Jones is Pastor of Bethany Baptist Church of Brooklyn, New York, and is the youngest man ever elected to head a major national Baptist convention.

The Progressive National Baptist Convention is the fastest-growing body of Black Baptist in the nation. Founded in 1961 at Cincinnati, Ohio, with only 23 delegates representing 22 churches in 12 states, the Convention has grown to almost one-million members, representing 1,500 member-churches in 40 states. More than 12,000 delegates, messengers, guests, observers and visitors are expected to participate in this 18th Annual Session.

The Convention's 1972 theme is: God's Power — The Dynamic that Delivers. Convention highlights include: Pre-Convention Musical and Welcome Program at Municipal Auditorium, 7:30 p.m., Monday, August 6; President's Annual Address at Municipal Auditorium, 7:30 p.m., Thursday, August 9; and the Annual "Freedom Night" at Municipal Auditorium, 7:30 p.m., Friday, August 10, when the Annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Memorial Award will be presented to Mayor Coleman Young of Detroit. The Freedom Night speaker will be Dr. Lerone Bennett, Jr., Senior Editor of Ebony Magazine and recognized as America's leading authority on Afro-American history and progress.

For Additional information, contact: Dr. George Lawrence, PNBC Director of Communications, at: (212) 455-7778, 925-9439 or 431-8859 in New York. In New Orleans, Dr. Lawrence may be reached at the Hyatt Regency after 6 p.m. Sunday, August 5.
