AHOY - ADD HEALTH TO OUR YEARS, a program to maintain and improve the physical health of North Carolina's older population has been developed by the North Carolina Division of Aging. The exercise program is designed specifically for older persons and was developed in conjunction with the President's Council on Physical Fitness.

Workshops to implement the program on a statewide basis began in early October and will continue throughout the year. On Friday, December 5, the Carrboro Recreation and Parks Department and the Division of Aging will sponsor an AHOY training workshop for citizens in the Chapel Hill-Carrboro area. The workshop will be held from 10 a.m. - 3 p.m. at the Carrboro Town Hall. Preregistration is required and there is a $2 registration fee for a workshop manual. The workshop will be limited to twenty participants.

Representatives from Senior Citizen Clubs or agencies that work with Senior Citizens, as well as interested citizens, are invited to register.

For more information, call 942-8541, extension 203.

VISITOR DESIRED — A 72-year-old black man living in a high rise apartment complex for the elderly would appreciate a visitor to come once a week. He is a religious person who enjoys talking. Contact Volunteer Services Bureau, 809 W. Chapel Hill Street, Durham.

TALF MEETING — The Triangle Area Lesbian Feminists (TALF) will hold their monthly meeting on Saturday, December 6, 7 p.m., at the YWCA, corner of Vickers and Proctor Sts., Durham.

There will be a business meeting followed by a program "Feminist Strategies Against the Klan." Child care will be provided. Bring snacks.

CLASSES AT W.D. HILL — The W.D. Hill Recreation Center, 1308 Fayetteville Street, will be offering adult classes in aerobic slimnastics, macrame, photography, and holiday crafts. Youth classes will also be offered in modern dance and gymnastics. Roller skating and martial arts classes will be offered for all age groups. For more information, call 683-4292.
