EQUAL OPPORTUNITY/AFFIRMATIVE ACTION EMPLOYER

NCCU Hands WSSU
76-79 Defeat Tuesday

John Bishop and Donald Sinclair combined for 45 points in leading the North Carolina Central Eagles to a 79-76 CIAA win over Winston-Salem State Tuesday, December 9 at R. L. McDougald Gym.

The Eagles and Rams are each 2-3 overall. Central is 1-0 in CIAA play while the Rams are 1-1 in conference action. Bishop, who led all scorers with 25 points, racked up 18 in the first half as the Eagles sprinted out to a slim 41-38 halftime lead. There were eight ties in the half.

The Eagles built up a 70-60 lead with 7 minutes left before sophomore guard Kevin McCray hit eight straight points and Daniel Womack tied the score at 70 with 3:58 left.

Freshman center Charles Murphy slammed home a dunk at 3:15 and the Eagles walked the Rams down. Sinclair added 20 points while Murphy poured in 14 and added 11 rebounds.

McCray led the Rams with 24 points and 9 assists. Therman Greene had 20, 18 coming in the first half, and Womack chipped in 16.

Rodger Mason led the Rams with 11 rebounds. W-SALEM (76) McCray 24, Greene 20, Wright 4, Cook, Miller, Wilkins, Grandberry, Womack 16, Mason 8, White, Graham 4. NCCU (79) Sinclair 20, Wright 5, Faucetta 1, Tyson 4, Bishop 25, Taylor 2, Oakley 2, Griffin 6, Murphy 14.

HALFTIME: NCCU 41-38.

Resigns

Shipman said the college hoped to name a new head coach in January, if not before.

"We will consider applicants within the current (coaching) staff and also applicants from outside the institution," Shipman said. "It is most likely that we will bring somebody in from the outside."

Whether the current assistants will be retained, "we will leave that up to the new coach," Shipman said. "We would encourage him, if he comes from the outside, to give every consideration to the assistant coaches now on the staff."

Other than accepting applications, which Shipman said the college would immediately, it is possible Livingstone would ask some specific coaches to apply.

"After we've had a few days to study the situation, we may identify somebody, inside or outside, who has been successful in his coaching career, and ask them to make an application."

There has been some speculation that Baxter Holman, who preceded Littlejohn and was highly successful might be asked to return as head coach. Holman is coaching high school football now in Winston-Salem. Shipman declined to speculate. Littlejohn was an assistant coach under Holman for five years. When Holman resigned in 1977, Littlejohn was named as his replacement. Livingstone football program has had problems since then. After the resignation of defensive coordinator Fletcher Jones two years ago, the defense has floundered.

The Bears were 0-10 this season, the worst record in the history of the school and the most losses in a single season. Littlejohn didn't say what he would do, but there were rumors earlier in the season that he had applied for a high school coaching job at a school in Virginia. He denied that rumor five weeks ago.
