

MRS. EMMANUEL OLUFEMI KEKU

Miss Pickard And Mr. Keku Are Wed

WINSTON-SALEM — Miss Harriett Sherlene Pickard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Pickard of Winston-Salem, and Emmanuel Olufemi Keku, son of Reverend and Mrs. John Adeboye Keku of Kedu, Nigeria, West Africa, were married in a double ring ceremony Saturday, November 22, at 2 p.m., at Mount Pleasant Baptist Church in Winston-Salem. Mrs. Harry E. Pickard is the former Miss Shirley Mae Franklin of Chapel Hill. Mrs. Keku is also the granddaughter of Mrs. Amelia Franklin and the late James Franklin of Chapel Hill.

The wedding was officiated by Rev. Henry S. Lewis, Jr., of Winston-Salem, Rev. Benjamin F. Tandy and Dr. Robert A. Dyers, associate Dean of Wake Forest University, assisted Rev. Lewis. Dr. and Mrs. Dyers are host parents for Mr. Keku.

The bride was escorted by her father who is assistant professor of music at Winston-Salem State University. She wore a white, capped sleeve chapel length gown with a Queen Anne neckline. The gown was fashioned with a molded bodice and arched waistline which fell into a softly gathered skirt of layers of taffeta, organza and point d'esprit. It was trimmed with silk Venice lace. The skirt and train were Schiffler embroidered with sequins and seed pearls. She wore a matching chapel length veil of illusion, highlighted with Venice lace and Schiffler embroidered, attached to a half Juliet cap. She wore white, formal length gloves and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums, roses and baby's breath.

Mrs. Keku is an honor graduate and National Honor Society graduate of Bishop McGuinness Memorial High School. She is also a graduate of Wake Forest University where she was a National Achievement Scholar, Dean's List student, Hanksin Scholar, member of the University Choir and freshman advisor. A master's degree candidate at the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill, Mrs. Keku was twice elected Alumni Fellow. She is a pension analyst for Booke and Company, an actuarial consulting firm in Winston-Salem.

Mr. Keku is a graduate of Baptist High School in Jos, Nigeria, and a graduate with a G.C.E. degree from the Federal School of Science in Lagos, Nigeria. He is a graduate of Wake Forest University where he was a Hanksin Scholar, president of the International Club, and a member of the Wake Forest University soccer and track teams. He is also a graduate of the Wake Forest University graduate school with a master's degree in Biology. He is a member of the American Federation for Clinical Research. He is a research assistant at the Bowman Gray School of Medicine at Wake Forest University and is an instructor at Winston-Salem State University.

Maid of Honor was Miss Amelia D. Pickard, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Sarah Murray Stephney,
