BLACK GIANTS

SAMUEL L. GRAVELY JR.

Samuel L. Gravely joined the Navy as an enlisted man in the early days of World War II. After 30 years and service in three wars, he rose through the ranks to the top.

Gravely was promoted to the rank of rear admiral on May 15, 1971, thus becoming the first black man to hold flag rank in the history of the U.S. Navy.

He was one of 49 chosen for promotion to admiral from a list of 2,000 eligible officers. The Senate confirmed Gravely's appointment without debate.

Mystery Series Begins On Center Four

The classic horror tale of virtuous scientist transformed into a libidinous demon receives a bold, distinctly fresh interpretation when "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" opens the new season of Mystery. Vincent Price hosts the 20-week series of classic horror, suspense and detective dramas which airs Tuesdays, beginning January 6 at 9 p.m. On Center Channel 4.

David Hemmings and Lisa Harrow star in this provocative two-part adaptation of Robert Louis Stevenson's tale that was inspired by a nightmare. Hemmings plays the dual role of a highly-respected Victorian doctor and his dashing, hedonistic counterpart. Harrow portrays a young widow torn between her admiring concern for Henry Jekyll and the sensual provocations of Edward Hyde.

Set within the colorful context of Victorian London and its stiff yet often contradictory code of ethics and morality, this new production lends a fresh perspective to the chilling struggle of a would-be paragon of virtue against the hidden side of his nature which defies all sense of propriety and delights in the unspeakable.

A four-part dramatization of the mystery classic "Malice Aforethought" will follow, beginning January 20, on Mystery.
