

ENTERTAINMENT

The Carolina Times
[The Truth Uncovered]

January 4 - 10, 1981

HARD CHOICES

Hard Choices is a six-part series on the moral and ethical dilemmas that have resulted from dramatic new developments in biological science and medical technology. Dr. Willard Gaylin, a practicing psychiatrist in New York City and President of the Hastings Center: Institute of Society, Ethics and the Life Sciences in Hasting-on-Hudson, New York, is host. The series begins Monday, January 5 at 8 p.m. On Center, Channel 7.