It's Easy... WITH EVAPORATED MILK

For A Change, Use Sweet Potatoes

Looking for a quick and different supper dish? Try this hearty ham casserole, crowned with creamy, mashed sweet potatoes. You can use either ham or turkey - or leftovers. Simply dice the meat and add it to a rich, creamy sauce made with evaporated milk. Pour it into a casserole dish and surround with tablespoons of seasoned sweet potatoes. Heat about 20 minutes. You might start the meal with a bowl of soup, and then bring on the casserole and a crispy green salad. If you feel ambitious, you might also add some freshly baked bread.

- Sweet Potato Ham Casserole
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
  - 3 tablespoons flour
  - dash pepper
  - 1 cup water
  - 1 tall can (1 2/3 cup) Pet Evaporated Milk divided usage
  - 3 cups (1 pound) diced cooked ham or turkey
  - 2 cans (23 oz. each) sweet potatoes, drained and mashed (about 3 cups mashed)
  - 1 1/4 teaspoons salt

Melt butter in saucepan. Blend in flour and pepper. Stir in water until smooth. Boil for 1 minute stirring constantly. Stir in 1 cup evaporated milk and ham. Pour into greased 2-quart round casserole. Beat together potatoes, 2/3 cup evaporated milk and salt. Drop by tablespoonfuls over creamed ham. Bake at 400°F for 20 minutes or until sweet potatoes are browned and creamed mixture is bubbly. Serve hot. Makes 6 servings.
