

Alpha Kappa Alpha Elects New Officers

Durham's Alpha Zeta Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority has elected new officers of 1981. They are (from left to right): Front row-Barbara Lewis, vice president; Gerald Hatcher, treasurer; Connie Scott, president; Zalphia Watson, assistant recording secretary; Queen Bass, corresponding secretary; Mamie Lewis, sergeant-at-arms; back row-Shirley Gardner, historian; Mattie Moss, financial secretary; Gwendolyn Paschall, membership chairman; Beatrice Cherry, chapter hostess; Jessie Kearney, parliamentarian; Thelma Carrington, nominating committee chairman; Norma Royal, past president (1980); Rosalyn Alexander, chapter reporter; Rosetta Johnson, assistant treasurer; and, Meredythe Holmes, member-at-large. Not pictured: Paula McAdoo, recording secretary. Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority is the oldest Greek letter organization established in America by black college women.

Tutoring Service Gets National Note

The winter edition of The Learning Connection carries an article by two Orange-Durham educators describing a model tutoring service based at Carrington Junior High School.

The service, called the Tutoring Connection, links "qualified tutors with learners who need extra assistance" in any subject area. Potential learners include youngsters of the traditional school age and adults seeking to upgrade their skills.

Co-authors John Formy-Duval (director, Northern Area, Durham Community Education Program) and Harvey Wensel (transportation coordinator and assistant principal, Stanford Junior High, Orange County), developed the program in response to needs expressed to them by parents and students. The Tutoring Connection is a component of the Community Education Program of the Durham County Schools. While most tutorial sessions occur in the northern part of Durham County, the service is available wherever it is needed. Expansion to a base at Githens Junior High is planned for February.

Pageant Participants Explore Science

The participants of the Little Miss Blue Revue Pageant sponsored by Eta Phi Zeta Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., were exposed to the wonders of science on Saturday, January 10. The activities were held in the Lee Biology Building at North Carolina Central University.

The participants were introduced to the microscope and had the opportunity to observe some single-celled organisms and the epidermal cells of onion. The activities ended with the building of a terrarium. Participants in the pageant include: Tara Alston, Pamela Billie, Samantha Evans, Alicia Elaine Jones, Yolanda Riggsbee, Tammy Lanell Russell and Angel Verbal.

Friendly Circle Meets

On Sunday, January 18, the Friendly Circle Club of St. Mark AMEZ Church held its monthly meeting with Mrs. Margaret Bumpass. The meeting was opened with prayer and singing, followed by a business session and a delicious dinner. Members enjoying the hospitality were: Mesdames Sarah Cameron, Corene Brown, Juanita Barnes, Margaret Bumpass, Helen McNeil, Lena Thompson, Dazel Stevens, Hattie Geer and Ada Bates, and Grover Burthey.

THE MICROWAVE HOTLINE

By Pat Quarles, Director
Microwave Information Center of Campbell Soup Company
Look! The Cookbook You Requested
By combining the many suggestions received from our panel representing consumers throughout the United States, along with the expertise of the Center's home economists, we developed the microwave cookbook you requested. It's called Cooking With Confidence in Your Microwave.

The book is the most comprehensive microwave cookbook available, containing sections on microwaving tips, terminology, menu suggestions and instructions for frozen and canned foods. Its 200 pages contain over 180 recipes (with easy-to-follow directions) tested for usage in all countertop microwave ovens available in the market place. In addition to being illustrated, the book is filled with 100 color photographs.

Since accurate recipe timing is critical to microwaving success, the book features a free-standing easel back for easier reference.

Here's a sample of the good eating that's in store for you.

Chicken Andalusia
Follow the directions carefully for arranging the chicken in this elegantly sauced recipe with the taste of Spain - the chicken will be tender and succulent.

2 pounds chicken parts
1 can (10 3/4 ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup
2 cups cubed eggplant
1/2 cup chopped drained canned tomatoes
1 medium clove garlic,
minced
2 tablespoons water
1/4 teaspoon poultry seasoning
Dash pepper

- In 2-quart oblong glass baking dish, arrange chicken skin-side down with thicker pieces toward the edge of dish. Cover with plastic wrap.
- Microwave on HIGH 8 to 10 minutes, turning dish once. Drain; turn chicken skin-side up. Combine remaining ingredients; pour over chicken. Re-cover.
- Microwave on HIGH 8 to 10 minutes, turning dish once.
- Let stand, covered, 2 minutes. Stir sauce before serving. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Chinese Pasta
A wonderful duo of Oriental and Italian cuisine. Gravy makes a speedy sauce that coats each strand of pasta lightly for a unique main course for company.

1/2 pound round steak, cut in thin strips
1 cup thinly shredded cabbage
1 cup diagonally sliced green onions
2 cups cooked linguine
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) au jus gravy
1 cup drained bean sprouts
1 can (about 4 ounces) sliced mushrooms, drained

- 2 tablespoons soy sauce
- In 2-quart round glass casserole combine beef, cabbage and green onions. Cover with glass lid.
- Microwave on HIGH 2 to 3 minutes or until beef just loses its pink color, stirring once. Stir in remaining ingredients. Re-cover.
- Microwave on HIGH 6 to 8 minutes or until hot, stirring once.
- Let stand, covered 2 minutes.
