

John Avery Boys Club Celebrates 40 Years Of Service

Durham's John Avery Boys Club, Inc., observed its 40th anniversary at the organization's annual meeting and banquet Monday, February 2.

Mrs. Edith M. Johnson, a member of the Board of Directors of the Club for nineteen years, received the Boys Club of America Bronze Keystone Award.

Members of the John Avery Boys Club baseball team, 1980 champions in the Little Tar Heel League, were special guests at the banquet.

J.M. Schooler, president of the club, thanked the corporations, fraternities, sororities, Sunday School classes, clubs and individuals whose financial contributions supported the Boys Club program during 1980. Schooler noted the deaths of two board members, N.A. Cheek and J.E. Peele, in 1980, and pledged continued efforts by the board in providing "guidance, health promotion, vocational, social, educational and character development for our youth."

Herbert E. Tatum, Jr., presented the report of the nominating committee, which was unanimously adopted.

Reelected to four-year terms on the board were Sam Margolis, W.J. Kennedy, Jr., A.T. Maulding, Sr., Herbert E. Tatum, Jr., J.W. McClinton, Dr. W.A. Cleland, Dr. Thomas Bass and Mrs. Charlotte Sloan.

Elected to a new four-year term on the board was Mrs. Faydean Richardson of Route 3, Apex.

Reelected as officers were J.M. Schooler, Sr., president; J.S. Stewart, vice president; Mrs. Lyda Wray, vice president; B.W.C. Roberts, vice president; Sam Margolis, vice president; N.H. Bennett, Jr., secretary; J.W. McClinton, assistant secretary; and Dr. Cecil L. Patterson, treasurer.

Special remarks were offered by W.J. Kennedy, Jr., president emeritus.
