

Miss Marsh Selected State Finalist

Miss Jewel Lynn Marsh, 17, daughter of Attorney and Mrs. William A. Marsh, Jr., of 1003 Cana Street, Durham, has been selected to be a state finalist in the 1981 Miss United Teenager Pageant to be held at the Reeves Auditorium, Methodist College, Fayetteville, at 7:30 p.m. on April 18.

The Pageant is the official state-wide finals for the Miss United Teenager Pageant. Contestants from all over the state will be competing for the title. All contestants are between the ages of 14 and 18 and must have at least a "B" average in school. They are requested to participate in the Volunteer Community Service Program of the Miss United Teenager Pageant. Through this program many youngsters are becoming involved in community activities by contributing at least eight hours of time to some worthwhile charity or civic work of their choice.

The winner of the State Finals of the Miss United Teenager Pageant will receive an all-expense paid trip to compete in the National Finals, a three-phase pageant in Hollywood, California, Waikiki Beach, Hawaii and Washington, D.C., where she will compete for $15,000 in cash scholarships, a new automobile for her reigning year, $5,000 appearance contract, $2,000 wardrobe and other awards.

Contestants will be judged on scholastic and civic achievement, beauty, poise and personality. No swimsuit competition is required. Each contestant will write and recite on stage a 100-word essay on the subject "My Country."

Miss Marsh is sponsored by Weaver's Cleaners, Attorney William F. Banks, Jr., Attorney and Mrs. J. Kenneth Lee, Godparents; and Attorney Marsh. She is a student at Hillside High School. Her hobbies include dancing, skating, bike riding and swimming.

Nathan Garrett Named Chairman of CAF

The Board of Trustees of the Cooperative Assistance Fund has elected Nathan T. Garrett, ten-year member of the Board, chairman of that board at its January meeting.

Garrett is a certified public accountant and chief executive officer of Garrett, Sullivan & Company, CPAs, headquartered in Durham. He is a graduate of Yale University and has had broad and varied experiences in the field of economic development.

The Cooperative Assistance Fund is a private non-profit membership corporation engaged in supporting the economic development of minority and low-income communities by providing investments in business enterprises serving those communities.

The Fund was incorporated in 1968 and its current members are: Field Foundation, Ford Foundation, Charles Stewart Mott Foundation, New World Foundation, New York Foundation,

GARRETT

Norman Foundation, Ellis Phillips Foundation, Rockefeller Brothers Fund, Sachem Fund, and Taconic Foundation. Each of these foundations has made substantial investments in the Fund. From this pool, CAF makes its investments in business enterprises that have promise of enhancing the development of the communities they serve.

Coalition To Receive Funds From Banquet

The N.C. Chapter of Asian Indians in America will present a check of $1550 to the Steering Committee of the Orange/Durham YWCA Coalition for Battered Women on Monday, February 16, at the YWCA in Durham.

The benefit banquet was a tremendous success with almost 300 people in attendance, according to Dr. Naren Tambe, president of the AIA. The evening's activities included an Indian dinner, a keynote address by Judge Karen Galloway, piano improvisations by Brother Yusuf Salim, a sitar recital by Billy Stevens, and a traditional Indian dance.

According to Ms. Jane Cousins, chairman of the Coalition Steering Committee, the money raised by this banquet will be used to eliminate the Coalition's budget deficit and defray the additional costs of the Durham shelter.
