AFTERSCHOOL RECREATION PROGRAMS — The Durham City Community Education program and the Durham Parks and Recreation Department are conducting Afterschool Recreation Programs at Y.E. Smith, East End and George Watts Elementary schools. These programs operate each day school is open through June 5. The hours are Monday through Friday, 2:30-5:30 p.m.

The program offers a wide range of activities including sports and athletics, music and drama, arts and crafts, study hours, tutorial sessions, and other seasonal special events. There is a small weekly fee.

For more information, call Gaston Patterson at 683-4355 or Albert Huey at 688-2361, extension 245.

THE FESTIVAL OF DOLLS — will be celebrated Tuesday, March 3, all over Japan and in Durham. Homage to the Emperor and Empress and their retinue of dolls will be paid from 10:30 to 5 p.m., Tuesday, March 3, in the auditorium of the North Carolina Central University's Taylor Education Building.

The celebration of the traditional Japanese children's festival is coordinated by Dr. Elinor Massoglia, professor of education at NCCU. Dr. Massoglia has observed the festival for 25 years, since her husband served as an Army officer in Japan. Admission to the exhibit and program, which will include periodic displays of Japanese paper-folding arts, is free.

SIXTY YEARS OR OVER? The Retired Senior Volunteer Program needs you to help with the vision screening of pre-school children in day care centers. A three hour training session, directed by a registered nurse, will be provided.
